

GENERAL PERSHING ARRIVES IN LONDON

GREAT VICTORY FOR BRITISH FORCES

SAN SALVADOR IS TOTALLY DESTROYED

ENTHUSIASTIC SEND-OFF FOR LOWELL SOLDIERS

Thirty young men who recently enlisted in the navy were given an enthusiastic send-off at the Middlesex street station when they left on the 11:05 train for Newport, R. I., this forenoon. At 10:15 the company, headed by the Lowell high school fifes and drum corps, left Paige street, and after marching through the main streets down town arrived at the Middlesex street station at 10:40. Although no formal program of exercises had been arranged, the drum corps played several patriotic selections, and the informal greetings to the sailors was quite in harmony with the occasion. At times the parting from loved ones were sad, but, as a rule, there were no superlative demonstrations.

The procession was in charge of Chief-Muster-at-Arms H. Sossiville and Chief Yeoman Tucker, recruiting officers at the local station. The flag bearer was William Witschke, and the color guards, W. J. Frazier and Roy M. Ogden. Frank Sullivan took charge of the men after they had boarded the train.

Another company of recruits will be sent away next week, according to present plans.

Four New Recruits

Although recruiting for the National Guard companies was unsuccessful during the day yesterday, last evening the campaigners secured four new men, who are today awaiting the "once-over" of the examining doctor. The companies wish to impress the fact that the men who were registered on Tuesday are in no way barred from existing in the guard, and that they will automatically improve in the carriage of the men is noticeable already, and with a little more training they will round out into real soldiers. Seventy-five coats and blankets were brought from

Victorious British Forces Hold Ground Won in Great Drive

So far the Germans have reacted hesitatingly before the tremendous thrust which the British have delivered into the long-held German line in Belgium. Only weak counter attacks were reported during last night, according to the unofficial accounts from the battlefront and Gen. Haig's troops have held all the ground they won, which reaches at points a depth of nearly three miles.

6000 Prisoners Taken

The force of the British drive is only in part indicated by the report of more than 6000 prisoners taken. More Germans killed in the British net are being sent rearward and there yet remains to be enumerated the many guns taken.

ARRAIGNED ON CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER

Henry W. Scott of Springfield was charged with manslaughter in causing the death of Max Meibinsky and also with operating an automobile in a manner that endangered the lives of the public. He entered a plea of not guilty and the case was continued for

Capital of Salvador and Six Towns Are Wiped Out

SAN JUAN DEL SUR, Nicaragua, June 8.—San Salvador, the capital of the republic of Salvador, with a population of more than 60,000, has been totally destroyed, according to a despatch from San Miguel, Salvador. No details as to the manner in which the city was destroyed have been received, but it undoubtedly was the result of an earthquake or volcanic eruption.

A despatch from Tegucigalpa, Honduras, says that in addition to the wiping out of San Salvador, the towns of Quezaltenango, Nejapa, Suchitoto, Patzún, Arrieros and Mejicanos also were destroyed. Mejicanos was a suburb of San Salvador.

LIBERTY BOND DAY IN THE LOWELL STORES

Today is Liberty Bond day in the Lowell stores, and throughout the day clerks and customers vie with each other in subscribing to the bonds. Many of the employees explained the advantages of the bonds and also demonstrated the installment payment plan. In turn, any of the customers who were interested were told of the movement and were urged to subscribe. A total of considerable amount will no doubt be realized before the day is over.

In many other lines of the city's activities the Liberty bond issue is being boosted. The mills, shops and various organizations are endeavoring to have their members enlist in the movement. Besides this, any of the local banks will be glad to explain anything in connection with the Liberty Loan.

The public school teachers, at a meeting held yesterday afternoon, were advised by Mr. Robert F. Marden of the Lowell Liberty bond committee, and Mr. Henry H. Harris of the teachers' committee on Liberty bonds. The method of subscribing on the installment plan was fully explained by both speakers, and over 150 of the teachers said that they would invest in a $50 bond, while some would go in for a greater amount.

The city's legal profession in being canvassed at present, and before another week is over every profession and trade in Lowell will be asked to subscribe to the bonds.

Considerable elation was expressed by the local committee when it became known that in the report given out recently from the Federal Reserve bank in Boston, Lowell was second only to Boston among the Massachusetts cities in the total of subscriptions.

In the account of the flag raising of the A. G. Tollard company, yesterday, the names of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dunlap were inadvertently omitted from the list of those on the platform. Mr. Dunlap is the treasurer of the company.

Frank Nelson, alias Peter St. Pierre, was arrested late yesterday afternoon by Patrolmen Doolley and Kilroy on a warrant charging him with larceny in Lawrence. An inspector from the down river city came to Lowell and returned with the prisoner.

Nicholas Halpin of 153 South street, suffered an injury to the second finger of the right hand while at work in the Hamilton mill about 11 o'clock this morning. The ambulance was summoned and the injured man was taken to the Lowell hospital where the finger was dressed.

Battery B has provided an attraction for the Flag day parade next Thursday that will cause considerable comment. The battery has succeeded in securing the Sixth Regiment band for the parade and this organization will appear in Lowell for the first time in several months.

Lowell's latest entrant into the field of journalism is a Greek daily called "The Light." The first number was published yesterday and was widely circulated among the residents of the city. It is a four-page newspaper, about one-quarter the size of the ordinary sheet.

A new branch of government service for the present war has been organized in Lowell, namely, a company of railroad construction men. Captain Frank C. Feltner has charge of the company and has already enlisted 50 men, but still wants 74 more. Engineers, firemen, track foremen, brakemen and stationary engineers are in especial demand, and unless the required number is secured through voluntary enlistments the draft measure will be resorted to. These men will be among the first affected by the draft because of their peculiar skill and knowledge. Enlistments are received at Agent Parkie's office, Boston & Maine station, Lowell.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

Two weeks by agreement. Scott being held under $2000 bonds.

Mebinsky was driving through Westford street late in the afternoon on May 19th and when near the corner of Smith street, it is alleged, that an automobile operated by Scott struck the wagon. Mebinsky was thrown to the ground and sustained a fracture of the skull which subsequently resulted in his death.

Given Suspended Sentence

Carolina Costro went into the A. G. Pollard Co. store last Saturday evening and during the course of her visits to several departments purchased two pairs of shoes, a pair of gloves, several yards of cloth and underwear, all of the value of $2.83. It was found that the woman had $25 in money in her possession. Inasmuch as the company did not press the matter and the counsel for the woman stated it was the woman's first offense she was given a suspended sentence of one month in jail on condition that she pay the costs of court.

Free For All Fight

The sequel to a free-for-all fight which occurred at the Lowell Bleachery Wednesday afternoon was aired during the course of the trial of Charles J. Donnelly, charged with assault and battery on Sarkis Cholokian. The defendant entered a plea of not guilty but after the evidence had been submitted the court found the man guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $12. An appeal was entered. According to the testimony offered Donnelly got into an argument with one John Sarkis while they were clinging out at the time clock in the mill about 5:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and when the pair met outside in the yard Donnelly struck Sarkis. A general fight was started in which employees of the mill participated and the fight was resumed in the vicinity of Newhall and Chambers street. During the fight Cholokian said that Donnelly struck him on the nose with force sufficient to make him fall to the ground. Several witnesses testified they saw Donnelly strike the complainant while two others said that Donnelly was not present when Cholokian sustained the injuries to his nose. Dr. Edward Robertson said that the complainant called at his office and an examination showed that the man was suffering from a fracture of the nose and minor bruises about the face.

Very Few Drunks

There were but eight drunks arrested yesterday and the probation officer released seven of that number. Joseph Brevinson was sentenced to the state farm.

RINGLINGS' CIRCUS FAMOUS RIDER

May Wirth, star of the "white tops," member of the Royal Wirth family and who receives more verses and flowers than many an idol of the footlights, is something of a philosopher. Summed up in a motto her philosophy is:

"Work hard, play hard and smile, smile, smile. Whoever does this consistently is bound to land on his feet."

Miss Wirth practices what she preaches. She is said to be able to rehearse longer hours than most male performers in circuses. She is an expert at tennis and polo and through it all she wears a smile, that simply won't come off. As for "landing on her feet" she does that even on the fastest of galloping horses. She is the darling lady dainty of the sawdust ring. Her forward somersault performed from the back of a horse running at top speed has never been equaled by any other equestrian—man or woman. She is indeed "the cleverest rider on earth."

May Wirth and the entire famous Wirth family will be here with the Ringling Brothers' circus next Wednesday. She will be seen in solo numbers, which will include her remarkable forward somersault on a single horse and others performed from the back of one mount to another while both are on the gallop. She is the feature of a great galaxy of riders numbering 50 artists, which include Ian MacPherson and his clan of Highland horsemen and Romontsky's daring Siberians. Though still in her teens, Miss Wirth has surpassed all others in her branch of the profession. Though she has many accomplishments as a rider, her amazing somersaults outshine all the rest. She rarely experiences a fall. This is because she has what circus people term "perfect time."

Just start to spring through the air at just the second or part of a second when the little watch inside of me says it's time to go," says she. "That's the only watch we riders have, and the only one we ever need. And then I keep right on smiling even when things sometimes go wrong. When the face is relaxed in a smile all the rest of the body relaxes, too. And so, you see, I always land on my feet."

More than 400 arena artists will appear on the program following the fairland spectacle, "Cinderella," when Ringling Brothers exhibit here. These will include the great international quartet of wrestlers, Pierre le Colosse, Carl Vogel, Edwin Johnson and Tonic Izzi; Hillary Long, the man who loops the loop with skates attached to his head; Australian woodchoppers in amazing contests; the Josefson troupe of Icelandic giants in remarkable feats; the Tamaki company of jiu-jitsu champions; 10 speed mechanics setting up automobiles in record breaking time; whole companies of world famed aerialists, including the Clarkomans and the Nelsons and scores of other exceptional artists of ring, hippodrome and tent-top achievements.

BLUE SERGE

For twenty years I have been the recognized Blue Serge Tailor of New England. Today is the same, you'll find a greater choice and prices lower—quality considered—than anywhere in New England.

A YEAR AGO I told you in one of my advertisements exactly what the condition of the woolen market would be today. But foreseeing was never more truly forecasting. I had already placed tremendous contracts direct with the leading mills and commission houses specializing in the manufacture of guaranteed blue fabrics. Consequently I can offer you today the same high quality Blue Serge, absolutely guaranteed as to color, strength and dependability, at the same prices as in former years. No advance.

Today and Tomorrow

I will have on display in my store, Merrimack Square, Lowell, more Blue Serges than all the tailors in Lowell, Lawrence and Haverhill combined. This is not said for a boast, I can prove it. Rolls of them, thousands of yards in different weights so a man can make a selection that he likes.

People want service nowadays—that's why I carry so many kinds and styles. You tell me you see so many styles you like that you don't know which really to pick out. You please me when you say that, because I know that is what you expect of me—Service and low prices.

ALL MEN OWE DUTY TO NATION, SAYS T. R.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Being passed over by the selective draft does not absolve a man from the duty of persistently offering his services to his country in whatever way they best can be used, Col. Roosevelt declared last night before the American Medical association convention here. Failure to do so means unfitness to be a citizen, he said.

"Some men talk as if their duty would be fully performed if they served when drafted," Col. Roosevelt said. "This is a great error. Service under the draft merely represents minimum duty. You should strive to render far more than minimum service. Many men of no special aptitude will not be able to render service unless they are drafted. Therefore, the drafted man who does his duty stands on a full level of honor with the man who volunteers."

"But the man who is not drafted does not stand on a level with his drafted brother unless he eagerly and persistently seeks the opportunity to volunteer wherever he can do useful service. If he is denied this opportunity through no fault of his own, then he is free from all blame, although if he is of the right type he will still

RAILWAY WAR BOARD

Railways Ordered to Give Preference to Essentials Such as Food, Fuel and Iron

Howard Elliott, former president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad and now a member of the railroad war board, in a statement issued outlined the efforts the war board is making to arrange for movement of the essentials of life and war, rather than the things we can get along without in this terrible world crisis.

"The war board feels," Mr. Elliott said, "that if the war goes on the total amount of transportation now available will not be enough."

"It will be absolutely necessary to use such transportation as there is for essential things. The public should willingly give up the non-essentials. It is going to be a great deal more important for this country to move food, fuel and iron and the like than to move luxuries. We hope that we are going to be able to move them all, but I think it is only fair to point out the facts, and to ask the public's support."

"The railroads have done their best in the last 18 months to add to their cars and engines. There have been placed in service since Nov. 1, 1916, 253 new engines and 44,063 new cars. Orders have been given for—as of April 1—2209 engines and 104,517 cars. We hope they will be received between now and the first of next January. If so, there will have been introduced between Nov. 1, 1916, and Jan. 1, 1918, 245,980 cars into the service, with an average capacity of over 50 tons; and 3188 engines, with an average tractive power of 54,000 pounds, which is very much above the average of the engines of the United States."

"On May 1 there was, according to the record, a 'shortage' of 150,000 cars in the United States. If, through better loading by the shipper, better unloading by the consignee, better movement by the railroad, and more alert work by every man in the railroad, from the president down to the water boy, each car is used efficiently, it will not take long to get what amounts to an added service of 150,000 cars out of the cars on hand."

"The railroad war board appeals to railroad officers and employees, to shippers and to the public generally to cooperate in every way to make more efficient use of the existing railway plant. It is absolutely necessary to make every car, engine, track, freight house, and every other appliance do more work."

Movement of Fuel and Ore

"One of the first and most important measure the railroads' war board has under way is to help move a greater quantity of fuel to the northwest and at the same time to bring east the greatest quantity of iron ore possible from the upper lake ports. This will provide for industrial activity both east and west next winter and also insure a supply of domestic coal."

"With the co-operation of the lake carriers, and the ore carriers, we have arranged for a pooling of shipments of lake coal so that when coal arrives at lower lake ports, there will be minimum delay in putting it into the boats, thus releasing the cars and sending the boats forward promptly."

"There is very luxurious passenger service in some of the country and we would like to keep it up, but the country can get along without some of it. We are suggesting changes in the passenger schedules, not with the idea of saving money, but simply to save man power, fuel and motive power, all of which must be applied to the transportation of necessities."

"The railroad war board has supplied to the government five trained railroad officers, who were commissioned to go to Russia to help the Trans-Siberian railroad to move toward the Russian front the freight piled up at Vladivostok."

"We are arranging to obtain nine regiments of trained railway officers and employees to help the English and French people carry on railroad activities, principally in France."

Organization of War Board

"The war board's organization includes 15 experienced railway officers, including the five executives, composing the head committee and 11 others who are here permanently. There are in addition 50 general employees, and 15 inspectors who travel about the country."

"This is an expensive piece of machinery. Our estimate is that, not counting the services of the war board and the railroad officers who are devoting a very large amount of their time to this national work, the American railways will contribute the equivalent of about $500,000 a year to this special work. And we are glad to do it."

"I think we will win this war sooner if first we wake up to the magnitude of the task, and then, not only mobilize our marvelous man power, but also coordinate with that our money power, our business organization, our press, and all the other mobilized and coordinated power to the sole purpose of supporting our allies in maintaining the highest ideals of humanity and civilization."

"That is what the American railways

UNVEIL MONUMENT AT GETTYSBURG

GETTYSBURG, Pa., June 8.—On the field of Gettysburg are assembled today a remnant of the army of the confederacy, gathered here again and probably for the last time to witness the unveiling of the memorial which the state of Virginia has erected to its sons who took part in the famous battle.

Gov. Henry C. Stuart of Virginia was to deliver the address, formally turning over the monument to the United States government, and it was to be accepted on behalf of the government by Secretary of War Baker or his assistant, if the secretary himself was unable to be present.

The ceremonies were to be simple, being opened about 2 o'clock with prayer by the Rev. James Power Smith, once aide to "Stonewall" Jackson and last survivor of the staff of that great warrior.

An unusually large gathering of confederate veterans for the occasion was made possible by the fact that the veterans were holding their annual reunion this week in Washington, only five hours away.

The monument, which is of heroic size, is surmounted by a statue of Gen. Robert E. Lee mounted on Traveler, his famous war horse. About the base there is a group of seven figures representing all arms of the confederate service. There are two boys, one a busier of artillery and the other a cavalry color bearer, carrying the state flag of Virginia. One figure represents a farmer fighting side by side with one whose expression and bearing mark him as a prosperous business man. Beside an artilleryman with long hair, aquiline features and negligent appearance, stands a stalwart mechanic, his musket firmly gripped to repel and attack. On the mechanic's right stands a man erect biting off the end of a cartridge, suggesting a type found among the professions, perhaps a doctor. Scattered about the ground are a shattered cannon, a broken wheel, a discarded knapsack, a hat, a swab, and an exploded shell, indicating that the spot had been the scene of some desperate engagement.

F. William Stevers of Richmond is the sculptor who designed the monument. It was his aim to produce a military memorial which would differ from the conventional figures of soldiers grouped about a pedestal.

The Virginia commission in charge of the work includes Governor Stuart, Col. W. Gordon McCabe of Richmond, Col. Thomas Smith of Warrenton, Major H. A. Edmondson of Houston and Capt. Stephen P. Read of Palmer Springs. The Virginia general assembly made an appropriation of $50,000 for the memorial.

WAR THIS YEAR GIVES FLAG DAY STRONG GRIP ON AMERICAN HEARTS

SALUTE THE FLAG!

Flag day, June 14, possesses a peculiar significance this year. For the first time in 19 years the United States, at war on Flag day, faces a European country, and our opponent now is not Spain, but a combination of nations which includes the strongest single military power on earth. Every school child is taught the meaning of the flag's birthday, and reverence for the nation's banner and symbol is inculcated in the words of the great "pledge of allegiance." "I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the republic for which it stands—one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all!"

TRANSPORT SUNK WITH- OUT LOSS OF A MAN

LONDON, June.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—What happens when a transport loaded with troops is sunk by a German submarine is graphically told in the story of the sinking of the steamer Ballarat which was torpedoed April 25 while carrying Australian troops to England and sunk without the loss of a man. Drill, discipline and tradition counted. There were no heroics, fuss or panic but considerable humor and much efficiency. As the vessel did not sink for four hours, there was ample time to save even the ship's pets and the soldiers' mascots.

It was Anzac Day and the officers were planning to hold a memorial service. The commanding officer was dealing with a remanded case. "And what have you been doing?" he asked, when then came a dull crash, a sound that seemed as he said, "to lift the skin off your face," and the ship began to take a list. The "alarm" was instantly sounded by the bugles, instantly followed by the "advance." Without confusion of any kind the men in four minutes, fell in at their boat stations. During the voyage they had been told the stories of the "Southland" and "Birkenhead" of the behaviour of the troops and men on these occasions. Those men who had used flowery and fluent parts of speech condemning the previous boat drills now used equally literary expressions in praise of them. "It's all right boys," a man called out, "the old man is on the bridge." "Don't sing too loud," said an officer laughing, "because I can't give orders." The order to "stand-easy" was given out.

The turn of the navy came now. The men knew that the navy would turn out, as Kipling says, "prefer to walk alone. Over the side went Bill Anzac, an Australian parrot in a cage; a gray squirrel had the run of a raft, a fox terrier and her puppies are now guests of the officers of a destroyer. And it was all done decently and in order.

The bandmaster who was wont to call upon his band to fall in by means of a certain call on his cornet had saved that instrument and when the men were in the boats they heard from a destroyer the old familiar cornet sing out, and across the water came a great noise of laughter from all the boats because the little joke had struck home. The men had lost their ship, were miles from anywhere, in open boats, but they could see the humor of it.

It wasn't exactly courage, because heaps of men were in a funk; and it wasn't exactly bluff, because you can't put up a bluff in a sinking ship, and

He has a controlling interest in Newfoundland paper mills and the Imperial paper mills at Gravesend, near London. He has long taken an active part in British political affairs and recently has been engaged in vigorous support of Premier Lloyd George's home rule for Ireland policy.

GERMAN LOCKSMITH SENTENCED
LONDON, June.—A German locksmith from Berlin has been sentenced at Cassel, Germany, to six months' imprisonment for an unusual exploit. The locksmith, a youth of 20, obtained possession of the uniform of a captain, and accompanied by a girl friend, made a tour of garrison towns in Central Germany, especially Saxony. He described himself as captain of a mine throwing company, and with the aid of false stamps, had provided himself with the requisite papers. He arrived at each barracks decorated with numerous orders and medals, and in each case inspected the military guard, and then filled out orders granting leave to a certain number of officers and men, and signed free passes for their railway journey to wherever they wished to go.

JAPAN DENIES REPORT

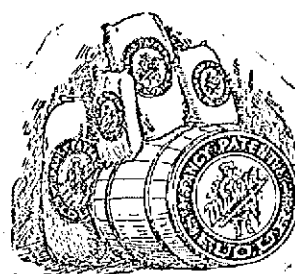

TOKIO, June.—The story emanating from Russia that if Russia made separate peace with Germany, Japanese troops would occupy Siberia, which was prominently printed in the Japanese press, was promptly characterized as absurd by the Japanese foreign office.

The Japanese press thinks that the report was probably fabricated for the purpose of suppressing the peace movement brewing among the Russian people. The report declared that if Russia relaxed her military efforts she would be threatened with serious danger from Japan and that according to a treaty concluded with the entente powers Japan would have the right to occupy all Siberia as far as the Ural mountains. This was denied by British statesmen.

"MOOSE" McCORMICK DROPS BASEBALL TO TAKE UP WORK AT PLATTSBURG

Harry McCormick, known to followers of baseball as a former pinch hitter of the New York Nationals, is one of America's prominent athletes who have heard their country's call and is preparing for active service at Plattsburg. Recently McCormick has been acting as a minor league manager. He won many a game for the Giants some years ago when McGraw needed a man to bat in a run or two. McCormick was then known as "Moose" McCormick, but there is considerable mystery about the origin of the nickname. It may have been due to his burly build, or to the fact that he is a big strong fellow. He played in the outfield.

JOHNSTON'S BAKERY

131 GORHAM STREET

SAW GREAT NAVAL BATTLE IN 1864

BOSTON, June 8.—For more than half an hour yesterday Judge Hall, jurors, lawyers and spectators in the fourth session of the superior court were amused by the remarks of Thomas F. McCulpha, plaintiff in a $10,000 suit against the city of Boston for injuries received in falling upon an icy sidewalk on Huntington street, East Boston, Jan. 25, 1914.

McCulpha, who is 85, has evidently seen much of the world. Although born in Ireland, his young days were spent in England and for many years he followed the sea. He said that while returning on a ship which had been in the Mediterranean he witnessed the great naval battle in 1864 off the coast of France between the confederate frigate Alabama and the United States frigate Kearsarge.

In giving his testimony, McCulpha, who supports himself on a crutch because of a broken hip resulting from the accident, did not sit in a chair provided for him at the witness stand, but walked back and forth in front of the jury and told them of his early life and how he received his injury. He was employed in the paving division of the street department of Boston 15 years and several years ago retired on a pension.

A settlement was made with McCulpha before the case had proceeded far, and it was withdrawn from the jury.

MOTOR BOAT CLUB

The regular meeting of the Lowell Motor Boat club was held at the clubhouse in Pawtucket street last night, and considerable business was transacted. Plans were made for the holding of boat races on the river on July 4. The following committee was named to make arrangements for the event: Chester Gay, J. H. Walker, Harvey J. Page, Walter Tarr and Walter S. Shaw. In all, it is expected that five races will be held, comprising a slow handicap, a fast handicap, a dog race, which takes the form of a relay team; a general handicap, and a free race for boats of all speeds.

GRACE UNIVERSALIST CHURCH

"Miss Civilization," a one-act drama by the late Richard Harding Davis, was presented at the Grace Universalist church last evening by members of the church and was largely attended. The amateur actors demonstrated considerable ability in the handling of the different parts and a thoroughly enjoyable evening was experienced. The cast was as follows: "Alice Gardner," daughter of James K. Gardner, president of the L. I. & W. railroad; Mrs. F. L. Gage; "Uncle Joseph Hatch," alias "Gentleman Joe," William W. Bennett; "Uncle Melvin," alias "Reddy, the Kid," Sidney W. Barton; "Harry Hayes," alias "Grandstand Harry," F. Elmer Barton; "Capt. Lucas," chief of police, J. Victor Carey.

LOWELL SOCIALIST CLUB

The regular meeting of the American branch of the Lowell Socialist club was held last night at 35 Central st. with a large number of members present. The following delegates were elected to the state convention which is to be held in Boston on June 23 and 24: Mrs. W. E. Sproule, William A. Chase and Joseph Murphy, with E. L. Sidel, Amos Garrison and Henry Burke as alternates.

VERDICT OF $10,000

A verdict of $10,000 for the plaintiff was rendered by the jury in the case of George R. Morse vs. Alexander Strauss at the superior court yesterday afternoon. Mr. Morse sued for $15,000 and the trial of the case took up two days.

On the night of Jan. 16, 1916, while Mr. Morse was driving from Westford into Gates street an automobile owned by the defendant struck the carriage in which Mr. Morse was riding and threw him out and he sustained serious injuries which necessitated four operations and he is still unable to use some of the injured members. He claimed that the automobile was traveling at an excessive rate of speed while the defense claims that Mr. Morse was not exercising due care.

Your refrigerator should always be kept absolutely clean and sweet to insure the proper preservation of the food and health of the household. FOYE HEARING ON AGAIN AT CITY HALL TODAY

The Foye hearing before the municipal council was resumed yesterday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock and little progress was made. Shortly after the opening of the session City Solicitor Regan rested his case and witnesses for the petitioner were sworn in. The attendance was a little larger than on previous occasions, for it was believed there would be some excitement, but the visitors were somewhat disappointed for nothing of a very exciting nature was brought out in the course of the testimony. During the hearing a recess of five minutes was taken in order to allow Robert F. Marden and Laforest Beals to make certain statements concerning the advisability of purchasing coal for the water department at this time.

At the opening of the session the stenographer was asked to read her notes in order to straighten out the motion that had been passed in the morning and by which the council voted to admit certain evidence. After the reading of the notes City Clerk Flynn said the mayor had ruled that the evidence be not admitted and the council voted as to whether or not the mayor's ruling should be sustained, the majority of the council voting in the affirmative.

The motion was amended so as to read that the evidence would be excluded. At this point Mr. Brown asked that a five-minute recess be taken in order to allow Robert F. Marden of the public safety committee to make a statement in relation to the purchase of coal made by Mr. Brown yesterday.

Mr. Marden said that on March 28 the executive committee suspected that the water department would run short of coal and the shortage would endanger the safety of the city. He said he was informed to look into the affairs of the department and if a shortage was found, he was to advise Mr. Brown to purchase soft coal, and as a result of his investigation Mr. Brown was advised to purchase several hundred tons of coal.

Mr. Brown—Was there any difficulty in purchasing soft coal?

Mr. Marden—Yes, we consulted Fred Horne and he said we could not be certain of getting all the soft coal we needed. We found that at the pumping station on the boulevard there was about a 10-days' supply on April 1, while at the Centralville station the supply would last about 30 days.

Mr. Qua—Did you advise Mr. Brown he should buy coal without consulting the purchasing agent or doing the purchase contrary to law?

Mr. Marden—No, but we told him it was very essential to have coal and we told him we felt it would be for the best interest of the city. We further informed him that if there was any criticism we would shoulder the blame.

Mr. Qua—Don't you think a competent purchasing agent could have purchased coal as cheap as Mr. Brown?

Mr. Marden—I am not under cross-examination. I don't want to be brought into a controversy.

At this point Mr. Flynn was asked to read the records of the municipal council and he read that on April 3 it was voted that the commissioner of water works be authorized to requisition the purchasing agent for 300 tons of soft coal, to be obtained from any person, firm or corporation, in such amount and at any time whenever available. This vote is of urgent necessity for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety.

Laforest Beals, employed by E. A. Wilson & Co., coal dealers, was called, and he said he had 20 cars of soft coal on the tracks and was being pressed to unload it. He said he went to Commissioner Brown and told him he could get 100 tons at a very moderate rate. Mr. Brown asked him to make it 200 tons and after Mr. Beals consented Mr. Crawford, the chief clerk of the department, was called and was given instructions to make requisition for the coal, immediately, as the company was forced to remove it from the cars at once. "We started delivering the coal," continued Mr. Beals, "but I informed me in touch with me and the city at once, which I did." He stated he sold the coal to Mr. Brown for $11 a ton, and that the same coal on the same day was being quoted in Boston at $12 a ton.

Mr. Crawford was called and questioned by Mr. Brown, said he was told to make requisitions for 200 tons of coal and he brought them to the office of the purchasing agent and gave them to Miss Downey.

Mr. Qua—Did you tell Miss Downey not to give the requisitions to Mr. Foye?

Mr. No, sir.

Q—Did you tell her that the purchase of coal was to be handled by her as she was the purchasing agent?

A—I don't remember.

Mr. Brown stated that he brought this matter before the council in order to make it known that if the water department is shut down for lack of coal it will be because Mr. Foye as purchasing agent refused to allow the delivery of coal.

At 5:20 o'clock the recess was declared closed and the hearing was adjourned with Treasurer Rourke on the witness stand. He was asked to what date Mr. Foye had been paid by the city as purchasing agent and the reply was to Jan. 14, 1917. Mr. Qua could not understand why the question had been asked and Mr. Regan said it was in order to clear the records.

The solicitor closed his case and the first witness heard for the petitioner was Architect Henry L. Rourke. He was asked if he was the architect engaged by the city of Lowell to prepare the plans and supervise the construction of the new high school, but Mr. Regan objected to the question and he asked Mr. Qua to produce the records. Mr. Qua said he would attempt to prove that Mr. Rourke requested the New England Structural Co. to make the delivery of the first installment of steel for the school. The mayor said there was no doubt in his mind but that the question was proper, but Mr. Regan insisted that the records be produced.

Mr. Rourke said the plans and specifications for the new high school had been drawn for some time. Mr. Flynn came in with the records of the municipal council and read that on Dec. 21, 1915, the commissioner of the public buildings department was authorized to execute a certain contract with Mr. Rourke for the construction of the high school. Reading from another record, Mr. Flynn read that on April 25, 1916, the commissioner of public buildings department was authorized to execute a contract with Mr. Rourke for the preparation of specifications and plans and the supervision of the construction of the high school.

When Mr. Rourke was asked what he had done since Dec. 1, 1916, in relation to the new high school he replied that two or three different sets of plans had been read and that the plans were completed and the details prepared for the contractors' figures. The specifications were prepared for the bids for the steel. Witness said he and people engaged by him made the plans. He also stated he had conversations with contractors from time to time and he said he attended various meetings and city council and advisory board. Speaking about the contract with the New England Structural Co. for the steel, witness said that the contract was made up of 10 columns and it was to be delivered on or before Aug. 15, 1916.

Q—In order to deliver it, it was necessary for the company to have plans?

A—Yes, and the drawings had to be ready in 30 days.

Q—Did you make the plans that had to be made for the fabricating of the steel?

A—Part of them and the rest by the J. R. Worcester Co., employed by me.

Q—In making the plans, was it necessary to take in the account of steel?

A—Yes, sir.

Q—When did you first learn of the choice of the fabricating engineer?

A—May 12, 1916.

Q—Was it necessary to have that engineer and to confer with him in order to prepare the plans?

A—Yes, sir.

Q—When were the plans ready for the fabricating?

A—June 30.

Mr. Rourke stated that it was impossible to get the plans in shape earlier because the heating engineer had not been selected by the city. He said when he found he could not get the plans out in time he notified the

SPRING FEVER NO JOKE

A DOCTOR EXPLAINS ITS REAL MEANING

"Of course," he continued, "the excessive meat eating, the loss of green vegetables and of oxygen, of which there is so little in the average heated house, all play their part. The reason we call it spring fever is because of an increased output of the vital forces during the winter months, and this demand means more phosphorus and iron. For it is these two potent remedies combined, which are nature's armament in her defensive warfare. With the advent of warm weather, the pores act more freely and the heart slows up and that peculiar lassitude which we call Spring Fever is manifested."

"And the remedy, Doctor," an interested listener asked. "Why my dear sir, the remedy for these starved nerve and blood centers is Phosphated Iron. But there is no reason why we should ever reach this point, if we would, from time to time take that well known remedy, Phosphated Iron, and so maintain the physiological balance, as shown by our color, our sense of well being, push and activity, all of which are necessary to make life worth while."

And the Doctor was right. Special Notice—To insure Doctors and their patients receiving the genuine Phosphated Iron, we have put in capsules only. Do not allow dealers to substitute tablets or pills. Insist on capsules.

Mr. Rourke stated that it was impossible to get the plans in shape earlier because the heating engineer had not been selected by the city. He said when he found he could not get the plans out in time he notified the city government and had a talk with Commissioner Donnelly. In August Mr. Rourke recommended the holding up of the steel as the city was not ready to receive it and Mr. Donnelly agreed. He informed Mr. Foye of the same thing and Mr. Foye also agreed to hold up the steel. The New England Structural Co. was notified that the city would not be ready to receive the steel and to hold it up. At this point of the testimony it was 6 o'clock and the hearing adjourned until 8 o'clock this morning.

Today's Session

The hearing was resumed at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. Brown moved that Mr. Marden's statement at yesterday afternoon's hearing be spread upon the records of the council. The mayor said that was unfair because Mr. Brown said yesterday that nothing would be spread on the records, and furthermore Mr. Marden's story was unfinished as he did not submit to cross examination. "I am a member of

HOAR QUESTIONS THE STATUS OF CONVENTION

BOSTON, June 8.—The legal status of the constitutional convention is seriously questioned by Roger Sherman Hoar, member of the special commission appointed by Governor McCall to compile information for the use of the convention.

Wanted No Oath

Mr. Hoar raises the point that in taking the oath to support the constitution of Massachusetts the members of the convention have opened up the way for an attack on the constitutionality of the convention, and that under several important decisions the results may be declared void.

He urged Governor McCall not to ask the members of the convention to take an oath. The governor put it up to the convention and there being no objection he administered the oath taken by all constitutional officers of Massachusetts. Previously the governor had announced to the convention that Attorney-General Atwell had stated that it made no difference whether or not the members took the state oath.

In his letter to the governor Mr. Hoar quotes from Jameson, a leading authority on constitutional conventions, who says:

Uniformly Decided in Negative

"It is generally admitted to be proper, if an oath be taken at all, that the members should be sworn honestly and faithfully to perform their duties as members of the convention. A question of more difficulty is, whether the oath should contain a clause to support the constitution of the state. This question has been raised in several conventions and has been uniformly decided in the negative."

Mr. Hoar states in his letter to the governor that the work of the convention may be put in jeopardy through the taking of the state oath, saying:

"Suppose that someone applies to the supreme court for an injunction to prevent the submission of the proposed amendments to the people. Such attempts are not uncommon."

"Counsel for the plaintiff will rely on opinion of Justices, 3 Cush. 572, to the effect that under and pursuant to the right of the people to change their form of government.

A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and it has helped me in every way. I am not nearly so nervous, no headache or pain. I must say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best remedy any sick woman can take."

"Right here is where the matter of the oath becomes material. Counsel for the plaintiffs will then say: 'That would all be very well if you were proceeding outside the constitution. But you have attempted to proceed under the constitution. Your taking of the oath proves that. So you are now estopped to claim any extra-constitutional popular sanction. You have brought yourselves under the constitution your convention is unconstitutional and void.'

"I may add that I have discussed this danger with a number of lawyers of standing and they all agree with me as to the existence of the danger."

Evans Takes Opposite View

Professor Lawrence B. Evans, another member of the special commission, takes the opposite view and maintains that the taking of the state oath does not in any way raise the question of the constitutionality of the convention.

The committee on rules held two sessions yesterday. The main feature of their conclusions was that there will be a free use of the method of the committee of the whole for the preliminary discussion of propositions but that this will not operate against the naming of smaller committees to bring in reports of various amendments which are suggested.

ABOUT 50 PER CENT CLAIM EXEMPTION

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Registration returns came in slowly yesterday and last night from Tuesday's great military census, preventing anything approaching a conclusive estimate as to the number of men actually enrolled.

A feature of the few complete returns in is the high percentage of indicated exemptions, averaging approximately 50 per cent. of the total registration. Officials pointed out, however, that this did not mean actual exemptions, as the indicated figures include all married men, and those in executive, judicial and legislative office. Until exemption regulations have been promulgated, it will be impossible to say how many of these will be included in those to be marked off the military rolls.

The one conclusive result of the registration that cannot be altered in the slightest degree by any possible variation from the estimates is that millions of young Americans have put in their names, claiming no exemption, and stating no reason for release from war service.

In regard to the married men, Secretary Baker said yesterday that in all the letters he has received on the subject of exemption not one even suggested that marriage should establish a class exemption. He added that it was not the purpose of the department to make such a ruling, but that individual cases would be dealt with on their merits, no matter what the reason for exemption might be.

Returns from six states were received up to 11 o'clock, the hour of closing the provost marshal-general's office.

SAYS GERMANS ARE READY TO QUIT

BOSTON, June 8.—The Germans are about ready to quit, according to Corp. R. E. Condon, an Everett boy fighting with the Twenty-fifth Nova Scotia battalion at the front.

Condon, in writing to his brother, Thomas J. Condon of 22 Dartmouth street, Everett, refers to the Germans as "Fritz" and "Heinie."

He writes: "Fritz will not fight at close range. He quits and hollers, 'Mercy, Kamerade,' two words he has learned to speak in pretty good English."

"But old 'Heinie' has nearly got me several times. I had a narrow escape at Vimy Ridge, where we were taking a few German trenches. While I was searching for an entrance in one of the trenches I ran plumb into a big 'Prussian' guard. He leveled a pistol at me and fired point blank. As he did I lunged forward and ran my bayonet through him. The bullet from his gun struck my rifle pouch, glanced off and passed through my sleeve. 'Heinie' was a dead one—it was me or him—and I have his revolver for a souvenir."

NO PARADE IN LOWELL ON LABOR DAY

The members of the Trades & Labor council met in regular session at 32 Middle street last night and voted that no parade be held by the unions of this city on Labor Day. This action was taken owing to the unsettled state of national affairs. The secretary of the organization was instructed to get into communication with Samuel L. Gompers and obtain from him a direct statement regarding his attitude toward strikes during the war. Considerable routine business was transacted and several reports were read.

A joint meeting of the Lowell Textile council and Trades & Labor council is to be held tonight at which Mrs. Sarah Conboy, secretary-treasurer of the United Textile Workers of America, will be present. Mrs. Conboy is coming to Lowell to aid in making

Brooklyn 5, Pittsburg 3
PITTSBURG, Pa., June 8.—Hans Wagner made his first appearance of the season with Pittsburg yesterday, playing first base, but poor pitching by Mamaux caused the home team to lose, 5 to 3, to Brooklyn. The veteran shortstop in four times up was thrown out three times by the second baseman, but singled the fourth time, driving in a run and was out at second trying to stretch his hit into a double. The league champions hit Mamaux hard in the first four innings, after which he was replaced by Grimes who later gave way to Carlson. In only one inning, the eighth, was Pittsburg able to make his score. The score:

CINCINNATI, June 8.—Regan was ineffective and New York won the third game of the series here yesterday, 10 to 1, piling up 15 hits, most of which came in pinches. Sallee also was hit hard, but he kept the hits widely scattered. Catcher McCarty, of the New York club, was seriously injured sliding back into first base in the fourth inning. It is believed he suffered a fracture of the right leg and probably will be out of the game for the remainder of the season. The score:

BANQUET OF BROADWAY BOWLING LEAGUE

The annual banquet of the Broadway Club Bowling league was held in Eagles hall, in the Harrington building, last evening and, like all other affairs conducted by this organization, it proved a success in every particular. The menu was one fit for the kings, the addresses by the various speakers interesting and instructive, and the program one of rare excellence. M. A. Lydon of Boston and Lowell catered. The attendance was very large, including all members of the league and several invited guests. The post-prandial exercises were opened by Timothy F. O'Sullivan, president of the club. He extended a hearty welcome to all, and then presented as the toastmaster of the evening, Rep. Dennis A. Murphy. Needless to say, the "rep" was right in his element as presiding officer, and he conducted the exercises with grace and ability. His opening remarks were very timely and were listened to with marked attention. His introductions of the speakers and singers were graceful and appropriate.

The first number was a piano solo by Walter Poullot, following which First Sergt. Talbot and Sergt. Sullivan of the Quincey Machine Gun company, now stationed in Lowell, gave a demonstration of the Lewis machine gun.

The remainder of the program was as follows: Song, James Dowling; chorus, assembly; song, Thomas Delmore; remarks, Thomas Fitzgerald; song, John Stapleton; remarks, James O'Sullivan; song, William J. McGookin; song and chorus, George P. Boland, and, as a grand finale, "The Star Spangled Banner."

The committee in charge of the arrangements comprised George Mullin, William Walsh, Richard O'Brien and Timothy F. O'Sullivan.

During the evening two letters of regret were read from boys on duty with the National Guard. One of these was from George F. Toye of Company G and Alvah Ayer of Company C.

FRANKIE CALLAHAN AND JOHNNY DUNDEE

Boston seems to be the battleground selected by aspirants for lightweight championship honors to go through the process of elimination. Last Tuesday night Willie Jackson destroyed Chick Simler's chances, and next Tuesday night, at the Boston Arena, Frankie Callahan and Johnny Dundee, high in the ranks of lightweights, are to battle. A decisive victory means the elimination of another "hope" for Benny Leonard's title.

Boston fans are perfectly willing that the big arena on St. Botolph street should be the battleground for these lightweights.

Thus far this summer they have been handed the greatest fights in the history of the Armory A.A. The battle between Dundee and Callahan looks like another whale of a contest. Apparently there is little to choose between them. Dundee and Callahan have fought three 10-round, no-decision fights. They will have to fight again if they did before for a decision means a step nearer a match with Benny Leonard.

Dundee has sent it broadcast that his defeat by Willie Jackson was a hard blow. He will have a hard job convincing Boston fans, but if he beats Callahan in a decisive manner he will at least have them suspecting that it might be so.

Tony Valin and Mickey Brown will supply the thrills in the semi-final which is scheduled to go 10 rounds. Harry Ginsberg of the North end and Harry Loung of the South end are the show while Tommy O'Toole of South Boston and Fred Webb of Waymouth will have another of their grueling bouts.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Bleachery team will play the Lawrence Mfg. Co. at the Alken street grounds, at 2 p. m. tomorrow. The game will start at 3 o'clock.

GARDNER STOPS AHEARN WON IN FIRST ROUND

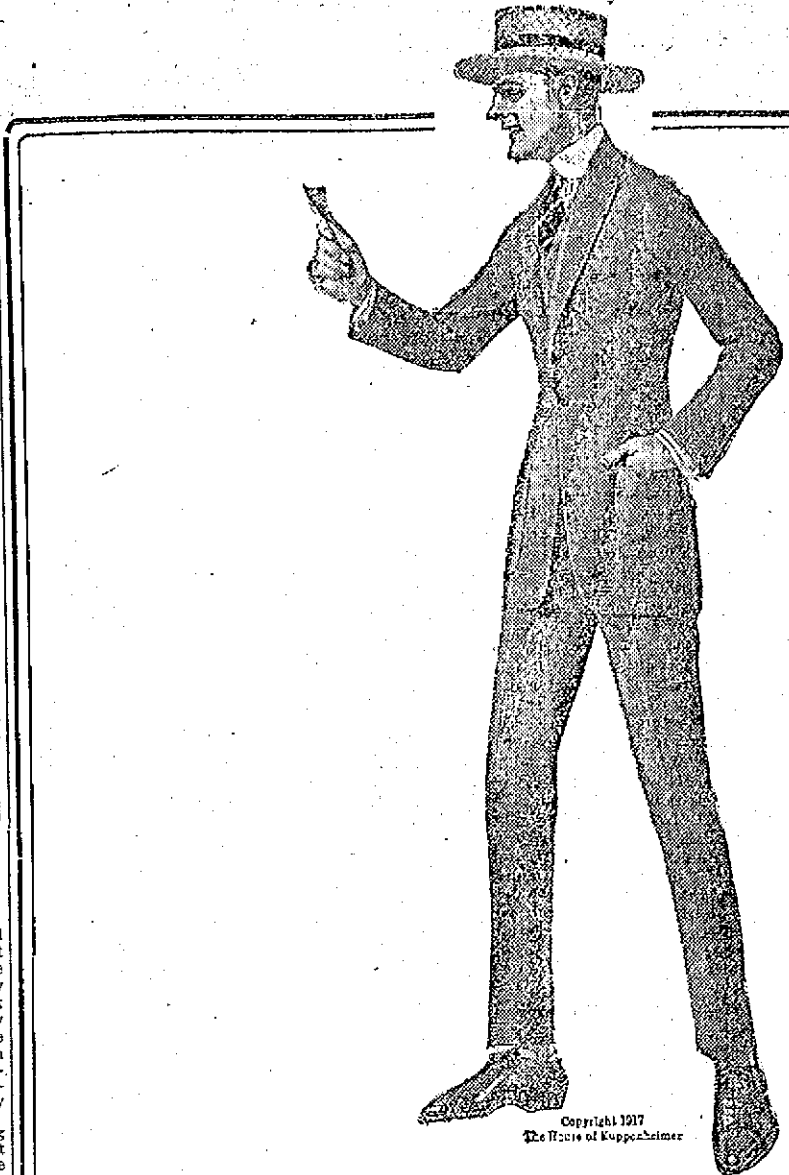

Jimmy Gardner, the Lowell "come-back" knocked out Young Ahearn, the Brooklyn dancing master, in the first round of a 12-round bout before the members of the Unity Cycle club at Lawrence last night. The men entered the ring and after exchanging blows for two minutes Gardner crashed a right to Ahearn's jaw and the latter went down for the count of nine. He was in no condition to continue, and Referee Phil Powers stopped the bout.

John J. Sullivan, former heavyweight champion, treated the members to a patriotic address, asking them to enlist in the army and buy Liberty bonds.

The other bouts ended as follows: Young Phillips of Lawrence was awarded the decision over Young Weinert of Lawrence; Buddy Dolan of Lawrence lost to Ed Barrell of Quincy in eight rounds; and Kid Thomas, Lawrence fought a draw with Leo Crevier of California after giving away 15 pounds to the latter.

BRONZE BUTTONS FOR GUARDSMEN

BOSTON, June 8.—National guardsmen who did not have to register on June 5, and are not yet in active service, and who have no registration certificate to show that they are not slackers can be identified by service badges, it was announced at the adjutant-general's office at the state house yesterday.

The problem has arisen on how to avoid confusion if and when the police receive instructions to pick up all young men of draft age, who cannot show the blue registration card. The members of the National Guard in this state did not have to register, and have no papers to let police know they are enlisted in the service of their state and country. Those not ordered to active duty cannot wear the uniform, and it looked as though they were in for hard bleeding.

But the state has distributed to each enlisted guardsman, and is still distributing to each calling guardsman, small bronze service buttons. Guardsmen and only guardsmen of Massachusetts may receive these badges. So it is upon the badges, and on them alone, that guardsmen not on active duty may be identified.

New recruits for the navy who are ordered to their homes to await instructions to proceed to training camps have no uniform and are not registered. The identification they possess to show they are already in the service is the written order they are given when sent from the recruiting office.

ONLY 15,000 MEN GO TO NEW CAMPS

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Only about 15,000 men will be trained in the second series of eight officers' training camps to be held from Aug. 27 to Sept. 26, Adjutant-General McCain announced yesterday. Forty thousand entered the first series of camps but the war department has reduced the number for the fall encampments in the hope of obtaining older and more experienced men.

The department yesterday also announced the quota allowed each state in the selection of training camps may be obtained after June 15 from commanding generals of the six military departments or from examining officers to be appointed in various states, and applications must be sent to these examining officers before July 15. Applicants are cautioned not to write for blanks before June 15.

Emphasizing the department's wish to obtain men above 31 years of age or men of special ability, General McCain said:

"Since the special object of these camps is to train a body of men fitted to fill the most responsible positions of command in the new armies, every effort will be made to select men of exceptional character and proven ability in their various occupations. While it is desired to give full opportunity for all eligible citizens to apply, no man need make application whose record is not in all respects above reproach and who does not possess the fundamental characteristics necessary to inspire respect and confidence."

The quota allowed each New England state and the places at which examining officers to whom applications should be sent, will be stationed are as follows:

Maine, 128, Fort McKinley, New Hampshire, 72, Fort Constitution, Vermont, 58, Fort Ethan Allen, Massachusetts, 58, Fort Warren, Rhode Island, 30, Fort Adams, R. I., Connecticut, 156, Fort Adams.

Lowell Citizen Gives A Strong
Testimonial For The New Stomach Remedy

consist chiefly in furnishing the people of the city with convincing proof that Plant Juice will do all that is claimed for it. That they are doing this, is shown by the numerous testimonials of well known local people who have received benefit from Plant Juice.

One of the latest is that of Mr. A. J. Payette, who resides at No. 45 Fisher street, and is in the employ of one of the largest firms in Lowell. Mr. Payette has hosts of friends and acquaintances, as he has resided in this city for a number of years. He recently stated:

"I have been troubled for a number of years with indigestion, and had heartburn, dizzy spells, headaches, and my stomach was in such a weak condition that I could not digest the lightest kind of food; I was so nervous that I could not sleep at night, was constipated, and had a bad taste in my mouth all of the time. I had read and heard so much about your medicine, Plant Juice, that I decided I would try it. After taking it for several weeks I am glad to say that my appetite is fine, I sleep well, am not constipated and am able to eat anything I want and digest it; the gas has left my system and I never felt better in my life. My wife is taking Plant Juice also with fine results. We are both glad to endorse it."

The Plant Juice Man is at Dows, The Druggists, in Merrimack Square, Lowell, where he is daily meeting the local public, and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

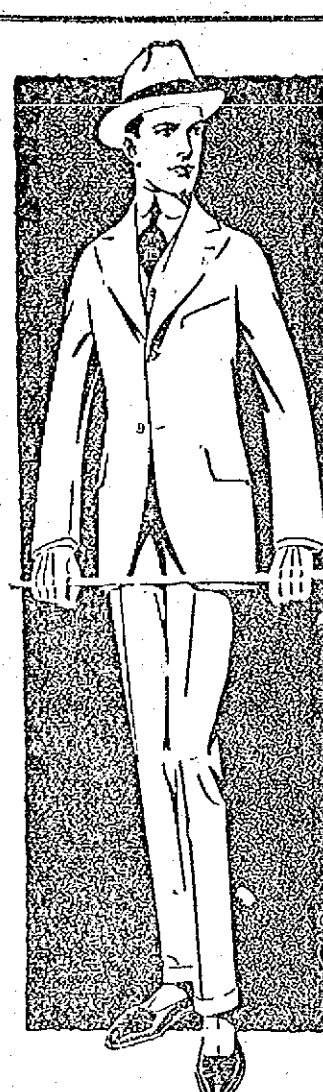

On Saturday he will remain at the store until 10 p. m. to meet those who are unable to call during the day.

Messrs. Waldo H. Lesure of Lawrence, William F. Prince of Bradford and Jas. L. Moxson of Methuen.

The speaker of the evening was Dr. Harold B. Plunkett of this city and he spoke on "My Partner." He explained in detail what should be done pending the arrival of a physician and dwelt particularly on cases which might happen during the time children were at school. A rising vote of thanks was accorded the speaker at the close.

Previous to the above meeting a short business session was held by the local association, during which the following delegates were elected to the 12th annual convention of the Massachusetts Public School Janitors association at Salem, July 11 and 12: President Patrick Mahoney, Frank J. Burch, Thomas M. Keegan, Torrence F. Casey, John Nolan and John H. Condon.

During the evening a literary program was carried out and luncheon was served in the dining room of the school.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

The following notices are from the press agents of the theatres mentioned.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Lowell lovers of motion pictures should realize that but two days more will the wonderful picture, "Joan the Woman," be shown at the B. F. Keith theatre. Thousands have already seen this masterpiece of the films, with Geraldine Farrar playing the leading role. Thousands more will wish to see it, and these final opportunities should not be neglected. Assisting Mme. Farrar in the production are such actors as Wallace Reid, Hobart Bosworth, Raymond Hatton and Theodore Roberts. Performances will begin at 2 and 7:30 p. m., and the box office will open at 1 and 7 p. m.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Today and tomorrow are the remaining days at the Merrimack Square theatre for the presentations of the stellar bill of pictures which was shown yesterday afternoon and evening. Carlyle Blackwell, June Elvidge and Dion Filadeague appear in very effective parts in their five act play, "The Crimson Dove," a gripping tale of a woman who tries to live down her past after falling in love with the minister of the town whose death she occasioned. Equally brilliant is the acting of Fannie Ward in her great five act motherhood drama, "Unconquered," which is a story of the lengths a mother will go to protect her son from a brutal and selfish father whom she married unfortunately. Also on this program are the Burton Holmes travel pictures depicting a number of interesting scenes a comedy and other plays. The picture which will be shown at this theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next is the high school field day at Spaulding park, which was taken by the management of this theatre.

JEWELL THEATRE

In Universal's next master serial, we see the cunning intrigue of a mysterious clique of criminals, directed in their murderous and inexplicable operations by the genius of evil deeds—this episode of mystery recounts the daring, ingenuity and scientific mastery of the most unique detective character since Wilson and Neva Gerber, the sixth episode is shown at the Jewell theatre today and tomorrow. George Ovey in a brand new comedy, "Harry Carey in the great western drama, 'Hair Trigger Luck,' a multiple reel production of red-blooded adventure and romance, 'Money's No Mockery' with Fanchette Billington and other good attractions will complete a fine end-of-the-week show.

ROYAL THEATRE

stage favorite, Burr McIntosh never appeared to better advantage than he does as "Joe" in the beautiful heart interest story of "My Partner," which is one of the most popular dramas ever presented upon the American stage. The picturization of this famous drama is the special attraction secured by Manager Huxson for Friday and Saturday at the Royal theatre. In the story of "My Partner," Joe's friendship for his "pard" Ned, which even stands the supreme sacrifice of seeing the woman he loved won away from him by his friend, his suffering when he discovers his tragic death, his pathetic appeal when he is accused of the crime, which finds expression in the simple, but heart-rending words "He was my pard" and the many soul-stirring incidents through which this noble character is revealed, stamp the role of "Joe" indelibly in the minds of all who have seen the drama. The picturization is a veritable film classic. On the same program is the second human story from the O. Henry series, offered by the Broadway players, not much need be said about these films. The first which was shown last Friday, and Saturday was an indication of the high standard to expect throughout the entire series. Among the many other good attractions are a "Lonesome Luke" comedy, a new Ham and Bud release with the two funny men at their best and Mollie King in the latest episode released of "The Mystery of the Double Cross."

Cocoanut Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

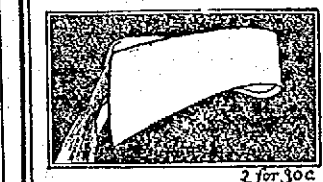

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulitised cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two tea-spoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulitised cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

CROWN THEATRE
In one of the strongest and most sensational photoplays ever screened, Robert Edeson, America's leading dramatic star, will be seen at the Crown theatre on today and tomorrow, in "For a Woman's Fair Name," a new Viagraph Blue Ribbon feature. The name of Robert Edeson is one which is well known to theatregoers throughout America, and in this new production he is given every opportunity to display his wonderful ability. This play deals with a woman who is blackmailed by a scheming servant, who continually threatens to disclose to her husband information which would blacken her character. How the wife is cleared and how the servant meets the end which he deserves, forms a story which is bound to hold the interest of all from start to finish. Other excellent attractions will also be presented at the Crown today and tomorrow in conjunction with the feature.

OWL THEATRE
In one of the most sensational photoplays ever filmed, Theda Bara, the world's greatest portrayer of vampire roles, supported by Lowell's own (Avon) screen star, Herbert Hayes, will again be seen at the Owl today and tomorrow. In the new Fox feature, "The Tiger Woman," this de-luxe production deals with an unscrupulous Russian noblewoman, who by her wonderful beauty and enticing ways creates havoc among the upper strata of Petrograd, and then invading America does the same thing in New York's smart set. How she meets the end which she deserves is vividly depicted in a smashing climax, the like of which has seldom, if ever, been seen on the screen. Also showing on the same program is the stirring art drama, "The Adventurer," featuring Marion Swayne.

Uncle Sam Invites You to Visit His National Parks

The government has done big things this past year in adding to the interest of the National Parks. Many new trails have been laid out in Glacier so that interesting places heretofore inaccessible may now be visited. Automobiles are universal now in Yellowstone, taking the place of the uncomfortable and slow-going horse stages, a matter for rejoicing by visitors, and the "Cody Road," eastern exit from the Yellowstone—has been perfected so that its marvelous scenery can be viewed from comfortable automobiles, over glorious Shoshone Canyon. Don't miss the Cody Road! Let me tell you in detail of the opportunities to visit Glacier, Yellowstone, Cody Road, Rocky Mountain (Estes) Park, Denver and Colorado Springs (with Pike's Peak and Garden of the Gods near by) all on the lines of a single great railroad system—the Burlington Route—the big, prosperous, well-managed railroad of the west. One ticket over one railroad. A glorious trip! Alex. Stocks, New England Pass. Agt., C. B. & Q. R. Co., 264 Washington street, Boston.

AMSTERDAM, June 8, via London.—The Haitian charge d'affaires at Berlin has been handed his passports, according to a despatch from the German capital. The note also asked for guarantees for the future.

LOWELL MEN ORDAINED
TO PRIESTHOOD

Two Lowell young men, Edwin P. Hassett and William E. Drapeau, were ordained to the priesthood this morning at a solemn high mass celebrated at the Holy Cross cathedral, Boston, at 9 o'clock. The ceremony was attended by several relatives and friends of the young clergymen of this city and was presided over by His Eminence William Cardinal O'Connell.

Rev. Edwin P. Hassett is the son of Mrs. Mary T. Hassett, of 85 Hanks street and a former pupil of the Immaculate Conception parochial school. He also graduated from the Lowell high school and Holy Cross college. He completed his studies at St. John's seminary, Brighton. The young clergyman is a nephew of Rev. David J. Murphy, pastor of St. Andrew's church, North Billerica. He will celebrate his first mass at the Immaculate Conception church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Rev. William E. Drapeau is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Drapeau of 17 Mt. Washington street. He was born in this city July 26, 1893, and received his early education at St. Joseph's college. After leaving the Lowell school he entered St. Charles Borromeo college at Sherbrooke, Que., and completed his studies at St. John's seminary, Brighton. The young clergyman has five brothers, Arthur, Hervé, Lucien, Raoul and Walter, and three sisters, Blanche, Antoinette and Lillian. He will celebrate his first mass at St. Jean Baptiste church Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock and for the occasion a special musical program has been prepared. In the afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock a reception will be held at the home of the parents, 17 Mt. Washington street.

LOWELL NEST OF OWLS
The regular meeting of the Lowell Nest of Owls was held last night in Elks hall, President C. W. Richards in the chair. Considerable routine business was transacted, several applications were received and new members initiated. Past President John E. MacCallum, chairman of the entertainment committee, reported that arrangements are practically complete for the concert and whist party that is to be held during the latter part of the month.

at $10.75 a ton, delivered at the pumping station on the boulevard. The coal was purchased from the Horne Coal Co. of this city and Mr. Foye stated this morning he can purchase 500 more tons of the same coal at the same price. Commissioner Brown this morning sent a requisition to the purchasing agent's office for 500 tons of New River coal for the Cook wells, and when he was informed of the purchase of 200 tons of New River coal at $10.75, he immediately cancelled the requisition for the Cook well coal. He also gave instructions to two employees at the boulevard pumping station to weigh each load delivered by the Horne Coal Co. and also to test a sample from each load to ascertain whether it is New River or not.

Mr. Brown was asked what he intended to do with the New River coal at the Cook wells and he stated he had made up his mind to open the wells sometime this summer. Asked why he had cancelled the requisition for 500 tons, he said the public safety committee will soon have a lot of coal direct from the mines and at the mine prices and he will buy the coal from the committee.

Park Department Work

If the rowdies who are damaging property on the commons and parks of this city are caught they will be punished to the fullest extent of the law. Last Wednesday the park department completed the repairing of settees on the North common at a cost of about $100 and today it was found that two of the seats had been broken down, and it is believed that an axe or other sharp instrument was used by the culprits.

About 30,000 tulip bulbs have been taken from the parks and commons and stored until fall at which time they will be turned over to the school children for planting. Summer plants of all descriptions are now being replanted on the various parks and commons.

PERSHING IN LONDON

General Pershing and his staff arrived here this morning after an uneventful trip. All the members of his party were in good health and spirits. Their ship was escorted into port by American destroyers.

A hearty welcome was extended the Americans by official representatives of the admiralty, the war office and the municipal authorities. The war office has assigned a brigadier general of the British army as aide to Gen. Pershing. He took up his duties with the commander-in-chief as soon as the latter reached here.

The formal welcome to the Americans on the landing stage here was a stirring scene. A guard of honor composed of Royal Welsh Fusiliers was drawn up at the landing with a regimental band. After Gen. Pershing had been introduced to the military officer in command of the port he inspected the guard of honor, the band, meanwhile playing "The Star Spangled Banner."

Gen. Pershing said to The Associated Press:

"The trip has been delightful, particularly the latter stages, when we were escorted through the danger zone by our own destroyers. Speaking for myself and my staff, we are glad to be the standard bearers of America in this great war for civilization. The spirit of landing at a British port and the welcome we received are very significant and are deeply appreciated. We expect in the course of a very short time to be playing our part, which I hope will be a very big part, on the western front."

Gen. Pershing and his staff proceeded toward London. Before leaving the steamer the general thanked the captain and crew for their courtesies during the voyage.

The British delegation which welcomed the Pershing party on board the deck of the liner consisted of Rear Admiral Stileman, Lieut. Gen. Sir William Pitt Rivers Campbell and the lord mayor of Liverpool. The ship docked at 9 o'clock.

After the band had played the American national anthem it rendered "God Save the King" all present standing at the salute throughout.

The voyage was a quiet one. The time was devoted by Gen. Pershing and his staff to hard work, with close concentration on the study of French by all the officers. During the trip there was a concert, at which General Pershing made an address. There was great enthusiasm on board when three American destroyers came up to act as escorts.

Pershing's Tank Described

PARIS, June 8.—Gen. Pershing's tank in France was described as a most audacious one by Col. Fabry in an interview with a representative of the Petit Parisien. Col. Fabry said:

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

It appears that the so-called conservatives will control the constitutional convention. Hon. John L. Bates, who was elected chairman, was the choice of the conservatives, although a considerable number of progressives voted for him.

There was a ripple of excitement in the ballot for chairman and an effort to adopt the secret ballot method was defeated by the liberals as an alleged scheme to favor the interests. Delegate Coakley, of Boston, was heard from with considerable effect, his speech eliciting hisses when he flung out the insinuations in reference to the interests.

The opening speech of Gov. McCall was probably the very best of his career. It was fair, learned, statesmanlike and progressive. In this notable utterance the governor laid down the broad principles upon which the organic law of the state should be based.

His definition of democracy and the explanation of its duties and responsibilities as a governing power were timely and to the point, while his defence of the rights of the minority was also clear and logical. On this point he said:

"The few who are at the moment stronger, have no right to trample upon the many; and on the other hand, the many, who by the power of numbers, in a democracy, are stronger, have no right to oppress the few. In either case the right rests upon the superior force and if in the scheme of things, right may be based upon power, then we must recognize the power of the majority as the final arbiter of the world and there is an end to the moral universe."

"A great nation with its armies may overrun a weak one, but the greater the relative strength of the oppressor, the more heinous is the crime against Heaven; and in the same way in a state, a mass of men may not of right in their organized capacity, do injustice to an individual man."

The governor stated that the constitution about to be revised is the oldest now in force anywhere in the world. That it has lasted so long was due to the fact that it embodied principles rather than statutory provisions and thus the old instrument offers a good suggestion for the construction of a new constitution that will be up-to-date and progressive and yet so confined to fixed principles and policies of government as to serve for many generations without change.

CREED FOR AMERICANS

The Vigilantes, an organization of authors, have announced a prize contest for an American citizen's national creed. The city of Baltimore, the home of Francis Scott Key, has agreed to pay the $1000 prize offered. President Wilson, United States Commissioner of Education P. P. Claxton, and other high officials, have given their approval and the contest is on. It will conclude September 14, 1917, the anniversary of the writing of "The Star Spangled Banner." What is sought is the best summary of our civic beliefs and duties to be adopted for general circulation in convenient form and for use in public and private schools throughout the country. The limit in length is set at 300 words.

Past efforts to secure a national anthem to order have signally failed, but this matter of writing a national creed for a true American, is somewhat different. We have no doubt that a fairly good American creed will be evolved although it may not and in reality cannot be entirely original in thought.

The creed, which it is proposed to secure in this way, is actually needed for the reason that a great many citizens differ widely in their views as to their duties and obligations to the state, something that will be generally accepted as an accurate statement of the principles of freedom which every American holds dear and for which he, if necessary, would sacrifice even life itself.

FORT HILL PARK

Editor Sun.
Dear Sir: I wish to thank you for bringing to the attention of the public the unprotected condition of Fort Hill park, especially in the evenings. As you have stated there is no police protection whatever. This I believe is a very grave mistake. The people who reside close to the park are annoyed by the disorderly conduct and the obscene language heard there in the evenings. It would seem that a park which is the most beautiful in New England should be made safe at all hours of the day or evening for anybody who wishes to go there for fresh air, recreation, or to enjoy the magnificent view of the city and the surrounding country. I hope the city will see the wisdom of suppressing all disorder on the park so that the public can enjoy it and so that the residents in the vicinity may not be disturbed or shocked by the nightly carousals. I want to say that these have not been nearly so bad since The Sun called attention to them.

Truly yours,

S. P. F.

We are glad to find that an improvement has been noticed in conditions at the park. It is now in the height of its grandeur, but many people are afraid to go there. It should have police protection so that women and children can go to it at any time with absolute safety.

CASE OF BELGIUM

No peace can be entered into with Germany until she has made reparation for the barbarities and depredations of Belgium and the enslavement

of her people. To talk of such a finale to the war is utterly absurd. Even Germany herself offered to be responsible for any damage done to Belgium. But German promises have already proved quite unreliable and they will probably be so in this case—unless Germany be compelled to make good. But for a country ravaged and pillaged and outraged, for a people enslaved, and barbarously persecuted, what reparation can be made? Not evacuation of territory, not payment in money—nothing that Germany can do would repair the damage, but she should be forced to make reparation so far as that is possible. It is but right that she should pay for her wanton cruelties.

THE LIBERTY BONDS

Some people are holding back on buying a Liberty bond in the hope that the government will offer a higher rate of interest. The present bonds are issued on the express condition that they will be exchangeable for other bonds if any are issued later at a higher rate of interest. The present rate is 3½ per cent and the loan may run for thirty years. The bonds can be disposed of at any time, or used as collateral for loans. The people who deposit their money in the postal savings banks can get much higher interest by investing in the Liberty Bonds. It is the duty of every citizen who has the money to help the government in raising the amount desired—two billion or about $20 for every man, woman and child in the country. The bonds are issued in denominations of $5 and $10 and upwards.

FALSE ALARMS OF FIRE

Chief Saunders of the fire department has recently complained of false alarms being rung so as to call out the fire department when there is no fire. It is a very serious matter to ring a false alarm. In the first place the engines are liable to meet with an accident on the way to a fire, or they may run over somebody. But suppose nothing of this kind happens, it costs a considerable amount for fuel to run the engines. Last but not least, while the engines are responding to a false alarm the apparatus may be called to a real fire in another part of their district. Thus, delay is caused that may allow a fire to get headway, and cause the destruction of life or property which would otherwise be prevented. The boy or the man who rings a false alarm should be sentenced to jail.

LORD NORTHCLIFFE'S COMING.

Considerable interest centers in the coming to this country of Lord Northcliffe to head the British mission and represent England in dealing with the other allied missions. Lord Northcliffe, through his newspapers, has proved himself one of the most influential men in England. He is accounted an able man, than Mr. Balfour, although very much younger. His forte lies in deciding and applying policies rather than in diplomatic affairs for which his capacity has probably never been tested.

REGISTRATION

The federal authorities are allowing a few days of grace for those who, through any misconception of the law or any lack of opportunity, failed to register. Such parties will be permitted to register with the proper city or town authorities without further delay. Anybody found wilfully evading the law will be severely dealt with. It is desired to make the registration as complete as possible. The census officials may be called upon to scrutinize the list where there is any suspicion of evasion.

CHILDREN DON'T COUNT

Congress would have performed a just and patriotic act if it had allowed a tax exemption in lieu of children. The exemption on incomes is now set at $1000 for single men and $2000 for the married. A married man with five, six or ten children, who is earning $2000 has more right to exemption than the married man earning $2000 but who has no children.

The latest report of the execution by submarines shows a lower record than for the previous week. This steady decline of the submarine toll is encouraging but the fact remains that it is yet far too high. Thus far the remedy for the submarine menace has not been put into operation. The fact that American boats are having some success in fighting them is a source of gratification.

The quietude with which the registration was carried out offers further assurance that the war will bring little disturbance of business conditions. Some people are disposed to be unnecessarily alarmed over what the war may bring. Only the Germans have predicted disaster and already they are celebrated as false prophets.

Almost daily new evidence of German plots and plotters comes to light in this country. It is difficult to see just how Germany can get adequate returns for the money expended in this way. But it is part of her Kultur system.

Seen and Heard

Cheap politicians cost the country a whole lot.

Almost any man will listen to you patiently so long as you continue to pay him compliments.

Even the time spent stripping the waxed paper off cubes of butter Scotch isn't absolutely wasted.

The amateur gardener has caused to peck the people who give advice among the other garden pests.

When a man is spilling for an argument, nothing makes him madder than to have every one agree with him.

The white tulip has been chosen as a badge by the pacifists, who don't seem to mind giving a bad reputation to a flower.

Theodore Roosevelt in a brass band would never be content to play the piccolo. He would want to beat the big bass drum.

If you want to hear a man say: "I know," all you have to do is to ask him how long he thinks the war will last.

Even if it were true that seeing one's name in print sometimes brings bad luck, the fashionable woman would want to see her name in print.

Hint to the amateur gardener from the man who doesn't like parsnips: In planting parsnips, plant them so deep that they will never come up.

The backyard farmer may have egg-plants and oyster plants and pie plants.

They Were Named Already
We have a reluctance to repeat mistakes made by pupils in school, because most readers believe that these "howlers" never really happened, but are made up, remarks the New Bedford Standard. They are in a class with the story you tell about the city clerk of your own town, only to have one of your listeners say: "Oh, yes, I've heard that, only it was about the city clerk in my town." However, here is a howler we can vouch for as having actually happened in a New Bedford school.

The teacher asked a pupil to name three streets in New Bedford. "I can't," was the prompt reply; "they are named already."

Plainly here was a child who did not go to school to waste his time.

At $8 She Sells Shoes

From time to time one reads of the sprightliness and activities of some person of advanced years living in Cape Cod towns. Here in Provincetown, the advocates make note, we have a business woman whose 39 years of life handicap her but little, if any, according to the testimony of neighbors and customers of many years' standing. This is Mrs. Rebecca Mayo, widow of Richard Mayo.

whose 59th birthday anniversary occurred a week ago last Sunday. With the exception of a trifling loss of hearing Mrs. Mayo retains her faculties practically unimpaired. Her health is good, her appetite is good. Strong of body and with mind crystal clear, she works on day after day in her boot and shoe store, seemingly immune to time's ravages. Not only does she conduct a snug little business with ease and dispatch but she does her full share of housewifely duties in the cozy home jointly possessed by herself and her sons and wife.

And so all through my life, by Jingo, I've always sort of striv'.

WOULD BAR QUERY ON RELIGION

WASHINGTON, June 8.—When the applications for the second officers reserve training camp are filed by New Englanders at the Boston headquarters, beginning June 15, a far different order of procedure in making the selections will be pursued than what obtained a month ago, if Congressman Gallivan of Boston has his way. Yesterday the Boston congressman renewed before Secretary Baker of the war department a protest which he filed some time ago against the manner of selection followed for the first camp. He asked the secretary of war to issue orders to the men detailed to the Boston office that no question be raised as to the religious beliefs. "You have already heard," said Mr. Gallivan, "that there is a widespread belief in Boston that Roman Catholics and Jews were discriminated against in the selections made for the present camp at Plattsburg. I feel quite positive that I can produce the evidence, if I do not want to see a repetition of what happened in May, and for that reason I make this appeal to you now."

An Antidote For Uric Acid Poison

(By DR. L. C. BABCOCK)

There is a process going on within the body which often poisons us. It is something like the story of the snake being able to kill itself with its own poisons. This is the formation of uric acid in excess within the body. It is a waste product which takes place in the liver. This poisonous uric acid is then passed on to the kidneys, which act as a filter to pass off and excrete this poison. If the kidneys are clogged up, inactive, the poison degenerates these organs and causes kidney disease. If it is deposited in the tissues, around the joints of the body, it causes rheumatism or gout.

Consequently we must do everything to throw off this uric acid poison, and simple methods are best. Flush the kidneys by drinking plenty of water between meals; a pint of hot water, morning and night is splendid. Take Anuric (double strength) three times a day for a while, and get the kidneys working by flushing out this poison. That painful affliction, known as gout, as well as muscular rheumatism, is caused by the uric acid crystals being deposited in the big toes or tissues. (The man who uses his brain, perhaps over-taxing his nervous energy will suffer fits of "blues," depression, headache, sleeplessness, loss of memory, all due to the poison of uric acid. The man who does physical work using his muscles, occasionally complains of sluggishness, muscular tired feeling, muscular stiffness or aches, neuralgic twinges—symptoms all due to this uric acid accumulation. In every case I advise hot water, and Anuric taken three times daily. A simple, safe remedy, which is to be had at almost every drug store.

$16,000 to the New England Structural Co. for steel.

Q.—Where did you send the certificate?

A.—To the office of the public buildings department.

Mr. Qu.—Will you state how the quantity of steel on this bill was ascertained?

Mr. Bourke.—The steel was checked up by a clerk of the company and a representative of the J. R. Worcester Co.

Mr. Qu.—Some mention was made of cast iron bases, were they part of the specifications?

Q.—Where were they supposed to be?

A.—In the basement and were the first to be set.

Speaking about the first installment of steel, witness said it was held up by the New England Structural Co. until February at which time it was shipped to Lowell and stored on Anne Street.

Q.—When were your plans completed for the high school?

A.—What particular plans do you mean?

Mr. Regan.—All.

Q.—Did you say yesterday you had turned the plans over on June 15?

Q.—When did you consult with the heating engineers?

A.—Some time in May.

Q.—What part of the plans of your plans were completed prior to your conference with the heating engineers?

A.—Considerable remained to be done.

Q.—Where did the work to be done by the heating engineers affect your plans?

A.—Frames, supports for the stage, supports for fans in roof, heating for auditorium and the steel for the auditorium.

Q.—How much of the steel has to be fabricated in connection with the heating plant?

A.—I refer you to my engineer.

Q.—The same answer for the air washing room?

A.—Yes sir.

Q.—When the contract was executed nobody was in a position to state as to when the steel would be delivered as far as the submission of plans for the fabrication of steel was concerned?

A.—Yes sir.

Q.—And the engineers were not appointed May 1, when the contract was signed?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—And it was necessary for you to confer with the engineers and they were not appointed, how could you determine when the plans could be completed?

A.—The time was determined at a conference in city hall of the J. R. Worcester Co., the steel contractor and myself.

Q.—And at that time you all knew that the heating engineers had not been selected?

A.—They had not been selected.

Itching is unnecessary! Resinol stops it quickly

It is a positive fact that the moment Resinol touches any itching skin, the itching usually stops and healing begins. Unless the trouble is due to some serious internal condition, it quickly clears away all trace of eczema, ringworm, pimples, or similar tormenting, unsightly eruptions, leaving the skin clear and healthy. Doctors prescribe Resinol widely, so when you try it, you are using a remedy of proven value.

Resinol is sold by all druggists.

Q.—Then the plans were not delayed?

A.—They were.

Q.—The heating engineers were selected when?

A.—May 12.

Q.—Did your appointment of the heating engineers cause a delay of 30 days in the plans?

A.—Yes sir.

Q.—Will you explain why the New England Structural Co. shipped cast iron bases to Lowell after the steel had been held up?

A.—In August the city was not ready to receive the steel, but cast iron bases were sent. Then steel was sent and I called them up and they informed me it was an error.

In reply to a question as to when the steel was ready, Mr. Bourke said the first installment in October was 158 tons and at the end of the month the steel was ready.

Q.—Shipments were to commence Aug. 15?

A.—Yes, sir, and were advanced a month.

Q.—Was there any steel ready in September?

A.—Yes, sir, 85 tons.

Q.—Did the city ever engage the J. R. Worcester Co. as engineers for this school?

A.—No, sir, only orally.

Q.—Don't you as a rule require your clients to do all business in writing?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—How is it you did not do that with this city?

A.—At that time I was in the office of the Worcester Co. every day and my orders were transmitted orally.

Q.—Were the plans accepted by the government?

A.—Yes, on May 2 and 3, and May 17, they were accepted as drawn. They were not completed on account of money borrowing difficulties on the part of the city, and the selection of land.

Q.—Did you receive a letter from the company to the effect that revisions could not be made unless further expense was involved?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did you notify the company that you contemplated more revisions and asked for an extension of time?

A.—I have no recollection.

Q.—The delay of the appointment of heating engineers was not responsible for a delay in the plans, was it?

A.—Yes, sir.

At 3:30 the hearing adjourned till 4:45 this afternoon.

$80,000 RED CROSS FUND

BOSTON, June 8.—The first $1000 of the $80,000 fund which the Metropolitan chapter of the Red Cross has set out to raise for the Boston City hospital Red Cross unit before it sails for France was obtained in one dollar subscription at a rally on Monday last night. Back Bay and Brookline society girls dressed in Red Cross nurses' uniforms assisted in collecting the contributions.

EXEMPTION BOARDS

Gov. McCall Begins Preparation of List of Names of Persons Whom He Will Recommend

BOSTON, June 8.—Gov. McCall has begun the preparation of a list of names of persons whom he will recommend to the president for appointment on the exemption and drafting boards for Massachusetts. Charles F. Gately, state director of registration, has prepared a tentative map of the state showing the 122 districts in which the boards will sit.

Mr. Gately announced that the men who lost their registration cards would be given written statements certifying to the fact that they had registered.

RED CROSS WAR FUND

The committee in charge of the one-week campaign for raising the Red Cross war fund in this city is hustling and various details which precede such a campaign are gradually being put into shape. At the present time the plan is for the formation of ten teams which will be made up of representatives from every large trade and profession. The members of the teams will be asked to solicit for one week. Team captains will be named to handle each team's quota and a complete list of assisting officers will be named to work out the detail. Each day a report must be wired to Washington. Lowell will be a reporting center for this larger and northern section of Middlesex county.

The executive committee is calling for experienced volunteers for the types of work. It is understood that the plan involves conducting the campaign at a minimum expense and whatever is done in preliminary work will be entirely unpaid. Already several have volunteered for team work.

AIDS MAKE CHARGES AGAINST GOETHALS

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Differences over the government's wooden ship-building program came to a head last night when F. A. Eustis, assistant general manager of the emergency fleet corporation, and his assistant, F. Huntington Clark, issued statements virtually charging Maj. Gen. George

w. Goethals, general manager of the corporation, with halting building of the vessels by prescribing an impossible form of contract.

The statements reveal that the fleet corporation has just received offers from 10 firms to build 496 wooden ships within 12 months or 786 within 18 months. Gen. Goethals has turned the proposals down because the builders wish to construct the ships on a cost plus 10 per cent profit basis instead of contracting for a flat price for the ships.

Mr. Eustis and Mr. Clark are the mining engineers who originated the shipbuilding plan adopted by the shipping board and regarded by Gen. Goethals as impracticable. When the board formed the fleet corporation and put Gen. Goethals at its head with full powers to build ships, the two engineers were assigned to the corporation as the general aids.

After taking charge of the building program, Gen. Goethals turned to steel construction and limited the wooden program to not more than 250 ships in 18 months.

May 2000 Ships Could Be Built

Mr. Eustis and Mr. Clark contend the corporation can build 2000 wooden ships within that time without interfering with steel building.

Gen. Goethals could not be seen last night for comment on the statements.

Chairman Denman of the shipping board, who has been reported as opposing Gen. Goethals' plans to restrict wooden shipbuilding, said:

"None of the members of the shipping board had any knowledge of the statements attributed to the engineers, Mr. Eustis and Mr. Clark, intimating a refusal by Gen. Goethals to build as many wooden ships as he might, nor had they the slightest intimation that they were to be issued. Gen. Goethals, as head of the emergency fleet corporation, in the service of which they have been acting, has entire responsibility for the shipbuilding program, wood and steel. That power was given him when the board was organized April 12, 1917."

"I have previously indicated my opinion as to places where discussions of such a serious character should be initiated. Apparently these gentlemen do not agree with me."

Expect to Lose Places

Mr. Eustis and Mr. Clark are serving the fleet corporation without pay. Both indicated last night they expected their resignations would be asked, but declared they felt it to be their duty to put the situation before the American people and show them that ships can be built to overcome the German submarine campaign.

Mr. Clark explained last night the tangle over commitments for wooden ships. When first employed he and Mr. Eustis, he said, directed several shipbuilding companies to go ahead with wooden shipbuilding, leaving the form of contract to be determined on later.

The builders, he said, were given to understand they would get at least 10 per cent on their work. Gen. Goethals, he said, on taking charge, stopped all work and the prospective builders had been unable to obtain any satisfaction as to whether they would be given contracts.

Mr. Clark's Statement

Mr. Clark's statement said in part:

"As far as we can learn, the present program contemplates about 2,000,000 tons of shipping in 18 months. This amount was sunk in the first four months of this year and the shortage is already appalling. The wooden ship program has been cut to about one-fifth of its original size—apparently to make room for steel ships. It is possible to build of wood 2,000,000 tons more than are at present contemplated without in the slightest degree interfering with the steel construction."

"A crisis in shipping will arise about December 1, and our allies and our success depends on our ability to begin to produce ships by that time. Very few steel ships can be produced in time. The early ships will be the wooden ships and they may decide the issue."

"Even if we build all the wooden we can only hope for a total of 5,000,000 tons in 18 months. This is not nearly enough. In deliberately neglecting 2,000,000 tons of wooden ships, we are taking tremendous chances. The construction of wooden ships has been limited in many ways. The standard design is difficult to build, requires a high percentage of skilled ship carpenters, large timbers and much hand labor. Many of the old Maine builders are willing to build a standard, but will not build the standard, as it represents a radical departure from their established practice."

"We have another design which could be built much more easily and much more rapidly—which has been accepted by the American bureau of shipping and by Mr. Ferris, the board's consulting architect, and which many builders much prefer. The original form of contract called for payment on the basis of cost plus a flat fee. This is the form used by the Canadian government and by our own navy."

JACK HEALEY'S EXCURSION

Jack Healey, manager of the local Mitchell tailoring establishment, and several of his friends had a discussion over the number of men that would register for the draft on June 5 and, while Jack is a great estimator, especially where clothing is concerned, his dope on the local total showed that, as a prognosticator he is a very good tailor. In other words, Jack lost and, good sport that he is, he took his friends on a 25-mile trip, that proved one of the most successful of the season. To those who have enjoyed Jack's hospitality the report of the time sounds natural, but to those not so fortunate it may sound like a fairy tale, but the writer will vouch for its authenticity. Wednesday morning, bright and early, the "bunch" met at the store of Mitchell's tailor where Mr. Healey's big National touring car was awaiting them. All hopped in and Jack took charge of the wheel. The party first went to Boston, and then turned off toward Fall River. The docks were inspected, and all gave the big ships their double O. A ride up The Drive proved very enjoyable. The party then went across to Jamestown Island by ferry. While on board, a large airplane from the training camp passed over the ferry, and the Lowell men were given an excellent view of the craft. The aviator was indulging in target practice, shooting at various objects, and he proved a great shot. Other points of interest were visited, and the party returned early yesterday morning, all pronouncing it a great success and expressing their gratitude to "Mitch" for the excellent time provided.

PERSHING IN LONDON. U. S. FIGHTING FORCES REACH FRANCE. SAN SALVADOR IN RUINS. GREAT VICTORY FOR THE BRITISH

ENTHUSIASTIC SEND-OFF FOR LOWELL SAILORS Victorious British Forces Hold HEAD OF U. S. FORCES Ground Won in Great Drive REACHES LONDON

Thirty young men who recently enlisted in the navy were given an enthusiastic send-off at the Middlesex street station when they left on the 11.05 train for Newport, R. I., this forenoon. At 10.15 the company, headed by the Lowell high school fifer and drum corps, left Paig street, and after marching through the main streets down town arrived at the Middlesex street station at 10.40. Although no formal program of exercises had been arranged, the drum corps played several patriotic selections, and the informal greetings to the sailors was quite in harmony with the occasion. At times the partings from loved ones were sad, but, as a rule, there were no superfluous demonstrations.

The procession was in charge of Chief-Master-at-Arms H. Sovell and Chief Yeoman Tucker, recruiting officers at the local station. The flag bearer was William Nitschke, and the color guards, W. J. Frazier and Roy M. Ogden. Frank Sullivan took charge of the men after they had boarded the train.

Another company of recruits will be sent away next week, according to present plans.

Four New Recruits

Although recruiting for the National Guard companies was unsuccessful during the day yesterday, last evening the campaigners secured four new men, who are today awaiting the "once-over" of the examining doctor. The companies wish to impress the fact that the men who were registered on Tuesday are in no way hampered from enlisting in the guard, and that they will automatically escape the draft by "signing up" now.

This morning the usual drill for the "recruits" was held in the rear of the Westford street armory. A decided improvement in the carriage of the men is noticeable already, and with a little more training they will round out into real soldiers. Seventy-five coats and blankets were brought from Framingham yesterday afternoon under the direction of Corp. McGready. Any of the men who wish to sleep at the armory may do so, and their meals are also provided. It is expected that the recruits will be sent soon to have the men brought to the training camp at Framingham. Each of the six regular companies throughout the state is endeavoring to enlist 50 men to bring the company to war strength of 150, and when these men are sent to Framingham, the recruits of every two companies will be formed into one company of 100 men. Thus the sixth regiment will have its regular twelve companies in actual service, and six other companies in a state of preparation.

Four young men recently expressed their desire to enter the regular army at the Central street recruiting station. Their names follow: George A. Cowen, North Chelmsford; Thomas Hockrek, 7 Wall street, Leo L'Heureux, 183 Plain street, and Joseph Savage, 67 Dartmouth street. Of these, Mr. Savage has already been accepted.

So far the Germans have reacted hesitatingly before the tremendous thrust which the British have delivered into the long-held German line in Belgium. Only weak counter attacks were reported during last night, according to the unofficial accounts from the battlefield and Gen. Haig's troops have held all the ground they won, which reaches at points a depth of nearly three miles.

6000 Prisoners Taken

The force of the British drive is only in part indicated by the reports of more than 6000 prisoners taken. More Germans raked in by the British net are being sent rearward and there yet remains to be enumerated the many guns taken. Several batteries are known to have fallen into British hands. The corresponding war and prisoners tell of the destruction of scores of German guns by British shells during the terrific bombardment that preceded the attack.

Furious Fighting Expected

While the counter attacks so far delivered have not been in great force and have been readily repulsed with extremely heavy losses to the Germans, the rush of German reserves into the fray cannot be much longer delayed and much fiercer fighting is to be expected before the attack can be pressed further into German-held territory.

Germans Reinforced

Vast numbers of German troops are being rushed forward by Field Marshal von Hindenburg in an effort

LONDON, June 8, 9.10 a.m.—Gen. Pershing and his party arrived early this morning at a port in Great Britain.

The American general and his party were received by the officers of the port, the general commanding the district and the mayor. They were escorted from the dock by a band and guard of honor.

Gen. Pershing arrived in London this afternoon. He was welcomed by Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador; Lord Derby, secretary of state for war; Viscount French, commanding British home forces and other officers, including Lord Brooke, who will be attached to Gen. Pershing's staff during his stay in England.

105 Officers With Pershing

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Major General Pershing, whose safe arrival in England is recorded in the foregoing despatch has with him 105 officers, enlisted men and other attaches. The party sailed more than a week ago without any publicity being given to their departure despite the fact that it was known to some American newspapers. Here again as was the case with the French and British missions, the newspapers loyally co-operated with the government in voluntarily censoring to safeguard the passage of the American officers.

In official quarters, the departure was so well surrounded with secrecy that within the last few days many government officials had been asking when Gen. Pershing would sail.

The party made the trip on scheduled time. It was learned today that the government had advised yesterday that the vessel on which they crossed was the liner Imperator, any anxiety that might have been felt.

Reports from Paris yesterday said that the camps of American troops had been selected. Presumably Gen. Pershing will inspect these and make arrangements for the reception of his troops. No information as to the composition of the American force or when it may be expected to reach France has been given out beyond the original statement that a division of regular troops supplemented by a regiment of marines would be sent "at the earliest practicable date."

Capital of Salvador and Six Towns Are Wiped Out

SAN JUAN DEL SUR, Nicaragua, June 8.—San Salvador, the capital of the republic of Salvador, with a population of more than 60,000, has been totally destroyed, according to a despatch from San Miguel, Salvador. No details as to the manner in which the city was destroyed have been received, but it undoubtedly was the result of an earthquake or volcanic eruption.

A despatch from Tegucigalpa, Honduras, says that in addition to the wiping out of San Salvador, the towns of Quezaltenango, Nejapa, Suchitoto, Pajamal, Amecoba and Mejicanos also were destroyed. Mejicanos was a suburb of San Salvador.

At 9.50 o'clock this morning there was still no communication between San Salvador and Tegucigalpa. At seven o'clock last night the telegraph operator at Tegucigalpa, Honduras, reported that the operator at San Salvador had informed him that earthquakes had been felt there. The shocks were also felt at Tegucigalpa where the operator at 7.45 p.m. lost communication with San Salvador on all wires.

First record of an earthquake there was in 1873, when the entire city was nearly leveled and 50 persons perished. Since then the city and the country surrounding it have been rocked again and again, whole cities and towns being razed and many persons killed.

The city, which was founded about 1525, is located about 120 miles south-east of the town of Guatemala, and is on a small stream which flows into the Pacific ocean.

The city is connected by rail with Acapulco and La Libertad and contains a university, the national palace, the national library and astronomical observatory and a botanical garden. It has a large agricultural trade. The country of San Salvador itself consists of a plateau about 2000 feet above the sea, broken by a large number of volcanic cones. Its population is 1,133,000 and the most recent census places the number of inhabitants in the capital at 64,000.

Volcanic Eruption

WASHINGTON, June 8.—A despatch from American Minister Low at San Salvador, sent at 9 o'clock last night while the volcano of San Salvador was erupting, said that the city had been destroyed by fire but that it was under control. Great damage was done.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The strike movement which existed in Paris during the last three weeks is virtually dead. The demands of the majority of the strikers have been met by the employers.

BERNE, June 8, via Paris.—The Swiss government is preparing to issue a new 4½ percent loan of 100,000,000 francs. Switzerland has already issued seven war loans totaling 650,000,000 francs, in addition to a 15,000,000 dollar loan issued in America which has been partially redeemed.

PARIS, June 8, noon.—Heavy fighting continued throughout the night below St. Quentin, the war office announced. German infantry attacks between St. Quentin and La Fere were checked by the French fire.

BERLIN, June 8, via London, 1.35 p.m.—The German forces on the Belgian front have withdrawn from the salient protruding westwards to a prepared "nerve" position between the canal bend north of Hallebeke and the Douve basin, two kilometers west of Warneton, says the official statement issued today by the German army headquarters staff.

LONDON, June 8.—The British losses in yesterday's attack in Belgium were light, according to an official announcement issued here today.

PETROGRAD, June 8, via London, 1.10 p.m.—M. Krustaleff-Nosar, who was president of the executive committee of the workmen's council at the time of the Russian revolution in 1905, has proclaimed the complete autonomy of the Petrozavodsk district of Little Russia according to a telegram received here today from Poltava.

ROME, June 8, via Paris.—Minister of the Interior Orlando has confirmed the report that no passports will be given to Italian socialists, who wish to participate in the conference at Stockholm. The minister considers the conference a maneuver of the central powers, aided by Russian extremists.

UDINE, Italy, June 8, via Paris.—A semi-official announcement says that Austria has made a formidable concentration of forces on the Italian front by the withdrawal of troops from the Russian front. The statement says that the Italians are now confronted with an estimated two-thirds of the entire Austrian army.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Reports showing progress were received today from the American agricultural army in its effort to produce foodstuffs for the United States and its allies in the war.

BOSTON, June 8.—The New England

LIBERTY BOND DAY IN THE LOWELL STORES

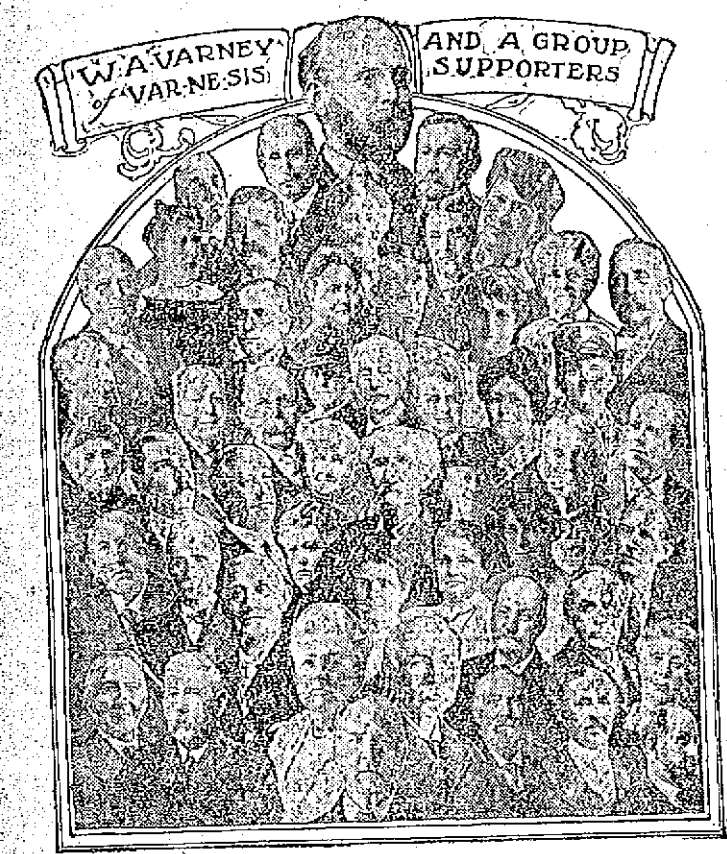

Today is Liberty Bond day in the Lowell stores, and throughout the day clerk and customers will each other in subscribing to the bonds. Many of the employers explained the advantages of the bonds and also demonstrated the installment payment plan.

In many other lines of the city's activities the Liberty bond issue is being boosted. The mills, shops and various organizations are endeavoring to have their members enlist in the movement. Besides this, any of the local banks will be glad to explain anything in connection with the Liberty Loan. The public school teachers, at a meeting held yesterday afternoon, were advised by Mr. Robert F. Marden of the Lowell Liberty bond committee, and Mr. Henry H. Harris of the teachers' committee on Liberty bonds. The method of subscribing on the installment plan was fully explained by both speakers, and over 150 of the teachers said that they would invest in a $50 bond, while some would go in for a greater amount.

The city's legal profession in being canvassed at present, and before another week is over every profession and trade in Lowell will be asked to subscribe to the bonds. Considerable elation was expressed by the local committee when it became known that in the report given out recently from the Federal Reserve bank in Boston, Lowell was second only to Boston among the Massachusetts cities in the total of subscriptions.

FIFTY REASONS WHY VAR-NE-SIS IS WORLD'S REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM

Group of Men and Women Who Suffered From Painful Affliction of Joints Now Enjoy Good Health

If these testimonials were not genuine, the authorities would not allow me to publish them. Many were wheel-chair and bed invalids—W. A. VARNEY.

"I could give you a thousand reasons why Var-ne-sis has become so popular, why one man recommends it to another," said W. A. Varney, the discoverer of Var-ne-sis. "The one best reason to the one who suffers is that it gets results, it relieves the pain and stiffness, the only reason why one should take any kind of treatment."

"These 50 men and women (count them) once suffered from rheumatism. They got results by taking Var-ne-sis. See them—talk to them—and you will know why Var-ne-sis is so effective in the treatment of chronic rheumatism of the joints. To these people Var-ne-sis is synonymous with health."

Samuel A. Jackson of the Westminster Presbyterian church, with which both young people are identified. The bride was attended by Miss Myrtle Sanger and Alexander S. Smith was best man. After a honeymoon trip to Plattsburg and points in northern New York, Mr. and Mrs. Sanger will make their home in this city.

Lanoue-McKenna—Mr. Leo H. Lanoue of 125 Coburn street, this city, and Miss Viola McKenna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McKenna of North Chelmsford, were married Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in St. John's parish residence, North Chelmsford, by Rev. Henry Scott.

Mr. John McKenna, brother of the bride, was best man, and Miss Cecile Lanoue, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. The bride wore white satin and the groom wore a tuxedo. The ceremony was attended by a large number of friends. The bride and groom left for their home in North Chelmsford.

After the ceremony the bridal party went to the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lanoue, 125 Coburn street, where a dinner was served and followed by a reception. Many relatives and friends attended, including many out-of-town guests, including Mrs. Frank Lanoue and Mr. L. L. Lanoue of Plattsburg, N. Y., Miss Cordelia Duval of Lynn, Mrs. Regina Sinnott, Mr. Ambrose Sinnott and Miss Melinda Sinnott of Haverhill, Mrs. William Danahy and family of Haverhill and guests from Revere and North Chelmsford. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion. The ushers were John McKenna, Paul Conway, Wilmer Danahy, Hector Lussard, Albert Foley and Edward Donahue. Gray's orchestra gave a concert program during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lanoue left on a wedding tour to Plattsburg, N. Y., later in the evening and will be at home to their many friends after July 1. They will reside in North Chelmsford. They were the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts.

RINGLINGS' CIRCUS FAMOUS RIDER

May Wirth, star of the "white tongs," member of the Royal Wirth family and who receives more verses and flowers than many an idol of the footlights, is something of a philosopher. Summed up in a motto her philosophy is:

"Work hard, play hard and smile, smile, smile. Whoever does this consistently is bound to land on his feet."

Miss Wirth practices what she preaches. She is said to be able to rehearse longer hours than most male performers in circustand. She is an expert at tennis and polo and through it all she wears a smile that simply won't come off. As for "landing on her feet" she does that even on the fastest of galloping horses. She is the daring lady dainty of the sawdust ring. Her forward somersault, performed on the back of a horse running at top speed has never been equalled by any other equestrian—man or woman. She is indeed "the cleverest rider on earth." May Wirth and the entire famous Wirth family will be here with the Ringling Brothers' circus next Wednesday. She will be seen in solo numbers, which will include her remarkable forward somersault on a single horse and others performed from the back of one mount to another while both are on the gallop. She is the feature of a great galaxy of riders numbering 50 artists, which includes Jan MacPherson and his clan of Highland horsemen and Remontsky's daring Siberians. Though still in her teens, Miss Wirth has surpassed all others in her branch of the profession. Though she has many accomplishments as a rider, her amazing somersaults outshine all the rest. She rarely experiences a fall. This is because she has what circus people term "perfect time."

She starts to spring through the air at just the second or part of a second when the little watch inside of her says it's time to go, says she. "That's the only watch we riders have, and the only one we ever need. And then I keep right on smiling even when things sometimes go wrong. When the face is relaxed in a smile all the rest of the body relaxes, too. And so, you see, I always land on my feet."

More than 400 arena artists will appear on the program following the fairland spectacle, "Chlorophyll," when Ringling Brothers exhibit here. These will include the great international quartet of wrestlers, Pierre le Colosso, Carl Vogel, Edwin Johnson and Tonio Izzi; Hillary Long, the man who loops the loop with skates attached to his boots; Australian woodchoppers in amazing contests; the Jefferson troupe of Icelandic giants in remarkable feats; the Tamaki company of Jiu-Jitsu champions; 10 speed mechanics setting up automobiles in record breaking time; whole companies of world famed aerialists, including the Clarkions; and the Nelsons and scores of other exceptional artists of ring, hippodrome and tent-top achievements.

BLUE SERGE

For twenty years I have been the recognized Blue Serge Tailor of New England. Today is the same, you'll find a greater choice and prices lower—quality considered—than anywhere in New England.

A YEAR AGO I told you in one of my advertisements exactly what the condition of the woolen market would be today. But foreseeing was never more truly forecasting. I had already placed tremendous contracts direct with the leading mills and commission houses specializing in the manufacture of guaranteed blue fabrics. Consequently I can offer you today the same high quality Blue Serge, absolutely guaranteed as to color, strength and dependability, at the same prices as in former years. No advance.

Today and Tomorrow

I will have on display in my store, Merrimack Square, Lowell, more Blue Serges than all the tailors in Lowell, Lawrence and Haverhill combined. This is not said for a boast, I can prove it. Rolls of them, thousands of yards in different weights so a man can make a selection that he likes.

People want service nowadays—that's why I carry so many kinds and styles. You tell me you see so many styles you like that you don't know which really to pick out. You please me when you say that, because I know that is what you expect of me—Service and low prices.

ALL MEN OWE DUTY TO NATION, SAYS T. R.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Being passed over by the selective draft does not absolve a man from the duty of persistently offering his services to his country in whatever way they best can be used. Col. Roosevelt declared last night before the American Medical association convention here. Failure to do so means unfitness to be a citizen, he said.

"Some men talk as if their duty would be fully performed if they served when drafted," Col. Roosevelt said. "This is a great error. Service under the draft merely represents minimum duty. You should strive to render far more than minimum service. Many men of no special aptitude will not be able to render service unless they are drafted. Therefore, the drafted man who does his duty stands on a full level of honor with the man who volunteers."

"But the man who is not drafted does not stand on a level with his drafted brother unless he eagerly and persistently seeks the opportunity to volunteer wherever he can do useful service. If he is denied this opportunity through no fault of his own, then he is free from all blame, although if he is of the right type he will be

RAILWAY WAR BOARD

Railways Ordered to Give Preference to Essentials Such as Food, Fuel and Iron

Howard Elliott, former president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad and now a member of the railroad's war board, in a statement issued outlined the efforts the war board is making to arrange for movement of the essentials of life and war, rather than "the things we can get along without in this terrible world crisis."

"The war board feels," Mr. Elliott said, "that if the war goes on the total amount of transportation now available will not be enough."

"It will be absolutely necessary to use such transportation as there is for essential things. The public should willingly give up the non-essentials. It is going to be a great deal more important for this country to move food, fuel and iron and the like than to move luxuries. We hope that we are going to be able to move them all, but I think it is only fair to point out the facts, and to ask the public's support."

"The railroads have done their best in the last 18 months to add to their cars and engines. There have been placed in service since Nov. 1, 1915, 339 new engines and 44,066 new cars. Orders have been given for—as of April 1—3269 engines and 104,917 cars. We hope they will be received between now and the first of next January. If so, there will have been introduced between Nov. 1, 1916, and Jan. 1, 1917, 145,930 cars into the service, with an average capacity of over 50 tons; and 3168 engines, with an average tractive power of 54,000 pounds, which is very much above the average of the engines of the United States."

"On May 1 there was, according to the record, a 'shortage' of 150,000 cars. In round numbers there are 2,500,000 cars in the United States. If, through better loading by the shipper, better unloading by the consignee, better movement by the railroad, and more alert work by every man in the railroads, from the president down to the water boy, each car is used efficiently, it will not take long to get what amounts to an added service of 150,000 cars out of the cars on hand."

"The railroad war board appeals to railroad officers and employees, to shippers and to the public generally to cooperate in every way to make more efficient use of the existing railway plant. It is absolutely necessary to make every car, engine, track, freight house, and every other appliance as more work."

Movement of Fuel and Ore

"One of the first and most important measure the railroads' war board has under way is to help move a greater quantity of fuel to the northwest and at the same time to bring east the greatest quantity of iron ore possible from the upper lake ports. This will provide for industrial activity both east and west next winter and also insure a supply of domestic coal."

"With the co-operation of the lake carriers, and the ore carriers, we have arranged for a pooling of shipments of lake coal so that when coal arrives at lower lake ports, there will be minimum delay in putting it into the boats, thus releasing the cars and sending the boats forward promptly."

"There is very luxurious passenger service in some places in the country and we would like to keep it up, but the country can get along without some of it. We are suggesting changes in the passenger schedules, not with the idea of saving money, but simply to save man power, fuel and motive power, all of which must be applied to the transportation of necessities."

"The railroad war board has supplied to the government five trained railroad officers who were commissioned to go to Russia to help the Trans-Siberian railroad to move toward the Russian front the freight piled up at Vladivostok."

"We are arranging to obtain nine regiments of trained railway officers and employees to help the English and French people carry on railroad activities, principally in France."

Organization of War Board

"The war board's organization includes 16 experienced railway officers, including the five executives, composing the head committee and 11 others who are here permanently. There are in addition 59 general employees, and 18 inspectors who travel about the country."

"This is an expensive piece of machinery. Our estimate is that, not counting the services of the war board and the railroad officers who are devoting a very large amount of their time to this national work, the American railroads will contribute the equivalent of about $500,000 a year to this special work. And we are glad to do it."

"I think we will win this war sooner if first we wake up to the magnitude of the task, and then, not only mobilize our marvelous man power, but also coordinate with that our money power, our business organization, our press, and all the other mobilized and coordinated power to the sole purpose of supporting our allies in maintaining the highest ideals of humanity and civilization."

That is what the American railway are trying to do through their war board."

UNVEIL MONUMENT AT GETTYSBURG

GETTYSBURG, Pa., June 8.—On the field of Gettysburg are assembled today a remnant of the army of the confederacy, gathered here again and probably for the last time to witness the unveiling of the memorial which the state of Virginia has erected to its sons who took part in the famous battle.

Gov. Henry C. Stuart of Virginia was to deliver the address, formally turning over the monument to the United States government, and it was to be accepted on behalf of the government by Secretary of War Baker or his assistant, if the secretary himself was unable to be present.

The ceremonies were to be simple, being opened about 3 o'clock with prayer by the Rev. James Power Smith, once aide to "Stonewall" Jackson and last survivor of the staff of that great warrior.

An unusually large gathering of confederate veterans for the occasion was made possible by the fact that the veterans were holding their annual reunion this week in Washington, only five hours away.

The monument, which is of heroic size, is surmounted by a statue of Gen. Robert E. Lee mounted on Traveler, his famous war horse. About the base there is a group of seven figures representing all arms of the confederate service. There are two boys, one a bugler of artillery and the other a cavalry color bearer, carrying the state flag of Virginia. One figure represents a former fighting side by side with one whose expression and bearing mark him as a prosperous business man. Beside an artilleryman with long hair, aquiline features and negligent appearance, stands a stalwart mechanic, his musket firmly gripped to rope and attack. On the mechanic's right stands a man erect biting off the end of a cigarette, suggesting a type found among the professions, perhaps a doctor. Scattered about the ground are a shattered cannon, a broken wheel, a discarded knapsack, a hat, a swab, and an exploded shell, indicating that the spot had been the scene of some desperate engagement.

F. William Sievers of Richmond is the sculptor who designed the monument. It was his aim to produce a military memorial which would differ from the conventional figures of soldiers grouped about a pedestal.

The Virginia commission in charge of the work includes Governor Stuart, Col. W. Gordon McCabe of Richmond, Col. Thomas Smith of Warrington, Major H. A. Edmondson of Houston and Capt. Stephen P. Read of Palmer Springs. The Virginia general assembly made an appropriation of $50,000 for the memorial.

SAW GREAT NAVAL BATTLE IN 1864

BOSTON, June 8.—For more than half an hour yesterday Judge Hall, jurors, lawyers and spectators in the fourth session of the superior court were amused by the remarks of Thomas F. McCulpha, plaintiff in a $10,000 suit against the city of Boston for injuries received in falling upon an icy sidewalk on Bennington street, East Boston, Jan. 25, 1914.

McCulpha, who is 55, has evidently seen much of the world. Although born in England, his young days were spent in Ireland and for many years he followed the sea. He said that while returning on a ship which had been to the Mediterranean he witnessed the great naval battle in 1864 off the coast of France between the confederate frigate Alabama and the United States frigate Kearsarge.

In giving his testimony McCulpha, who supports himself on a crutch because of a broken hip resulting from the accident, did not sit in a chair provided for him at the witness stand, but walked back and forth in front of the jury and told them of his early life and how he received his injury. He was employed in the paving division of the street department of Boston 45 years and several years ago retired on a pension.

A settlement was made with McCulpha before the case had proceeded far, and it was withdrawn from the jury.

Dennett; "Uncle Meakin," alias "Reddy, the Kid," Sidney W. Barton; "Harry," Harry F. Eimer; "Grandstand Harry," F. Eimer; "Capt. Lucas," chief of police, J. Victor Carey.

VERDICT OF $10,000

A verdict of $10,000 for the plaintiff was rendered by the jury in the case of George R. Morse vs. Alexander Strauss at the superior court yesterday afternoon. Mr. Morse sued for $15,000 and the trial of the case took up two days.

On the night of Jan. 16, 1916, while Mr. Morse was driving from Westford into Gates street automobile, the carriage in which Mr. Morse was riding and threw him out and he sustained serious injuries which necessitated four operations, and he is still unable to use some of the injured members. He claimed that the automobile was traveling at an excessive rate of speed while the defense claims that Mr. Morse was not exercising due care.

FOYE HEARING ON AGAIN AT CITY HALL TODAY

The Foye hearing before the municipal council was resumed yesterday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock and little progress was made. Shortly after the opening of the session City Solicitor Regan read his case and witnesses for the petitioner were sworn in. The attendance was a little larger than on previous occasions, for it was believed that the hearing would be a very exciting affair. During the hearing a recess of five minutes was taken in order to allow Robert F. Marden and Laforest Beals to make certain statements concerning the advisability of purchasing coal for the water department at this time.

At the opening of the session the stenographer was asked to read her notes in order to straighten out the position that had been passed in the morning and by which the council voted to admit certain evidence. After the reading of the notes City Clerk Flynn said the mayor had ruled that the evidence be not admitted and the council voted as to whether or not the mayor's ruling should be sustained, the majority of the council voting in the affirmative.

The motion was amended so as to read that the evidence would be excluded. At this point Mr. Brown asked that a five-minute recess be taken in order to allow Robert F. Marden of the public safety committee to make a statement in relation to the purchase of coal made by Mr. Brown yesterday.

Mr. Marden said that on March 23 the executive committee suspected that the water department would run short of coal and the shortage would endanger the safety of the city. He said he was informed to look into the situation of the department and if a shortage was found, he was to advise Mr. Brown to purchase soft coal, and as a result of his investigations Mr. Brown was advised to purchase several hundred tons of coal.

Mr. Brown—Was there any difficulty in purchasing soft coal?
Mr. Marden—Yes, we consulted Fred Horne and he said we could not be certain of getting all the soft coal we needed. We found that at the pumping station on the boulevard there was about a 10-days' supply on April 1, while at the Centralville station the supply would last about 30 days.

Mr. Qua—Did you advise Mr. Brown he should buy coal without consulting the purchasing agent or doing the purchase contrary to law?

Mr. Marden—No, but we told him it was very essential to have coal and we told him we felt it would be for the best interest of the city. We further informed him that if there was any criticism we would shoulder the blame.

Mr. Qua—Don't you think a competent purchasing agent could have purchased coal as cheap as Mr. Brown?

Mr. Marden—I am not under cross-examination. I don't want to be brought into a controversy.

At this point Mr. Flynn was asked to read the records of the municipal council and he read that on April 3 it was voted that the commissioner of water works be authorized to requisition the purchasing agent for 2000 tons of soft coal, to be obtained from any person, firm or corporation, in such amount and at any time whenever available. This vote is of urgent necessity for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety.

Laforest Beals, employed by E. A. Wilson & Co., coal dealers, was called, and he said he had 20 cars of New River coal on the tracks and was being pressed to unload it. He said he went to Commissioner Brown and told him he could get 100 tons at a very moderate rate. Mr. Brown asked him to make it 200 tons and after Mr. Beals consented, Mr. Crawford, the chief clerk of the department, was called and was given instructions to make requisitions for the coal, immediately, as the company was forced to remove it from the cars at once. "We started delivering the coal," continued Mr. Beals, "but later Mr. Foye got in touch with me and informed me to stop delivering coal to the city at once, which I did." He stated he sold the coal to Mr. Brown for $11 a ton, and that the same coal on the same day was being quoted in Boston at $12 a ton.

Mr. Crawford was called and questioned by Mr. Brown, said he was told to make requisitions for 20 tons of coal and he brought them to the office of the purchasing agent and gave them to Miss Downey.

Mr. Qua—Did you tell Miss Downey not to give the requisitions to Mr. Foye?

A—No, sir.

Q—Did you tell her that the purchase of coal was to be handled by her as she was the purchasing agent?

A—I don't remember.

Mr. Brown stated that he brought this matter before the council in order to make it known that if the water department is shut down for lack of coal it will be because Mr. Foye as purchasing agent refused to allow the delivery of coal.

At 6 o'clock the recess was declared closed and the hearing was resumed with Treasurer Rourke on the witness stand. He was asked to what date Mr. Foye had been paid by the city as purchasing agent and the reply was to Jan. 14, 1917. Mr. Qua could not understand why the question had been asked and Mr. Regan said it was in order to clear the records.

The solicitor closed his case and the first witness heard for the petitioner was Architect Henry L. Rourke. He was asked if he was the architect engaged by the city of Lowell to prepare the plans and supervise the construction of the new high school, but Mr. Regan objected to the question and

A DOCTOR EXPLAINS ITS REAL MEANING

"Of course," he continued, "the excessive meat eating, the loss of green vegetables and of oxygen, of which there is so little in the average heated house, all play their part. The result is that nature is calling for an increased output of the vital forces during the winter months, and this demand means more phosphorus and iron. For it is these two potent remedies combined, which are nature's armament in her defensive warfare. With the advent of warm weather, the pores act more freely and the heart slows up and that peculiar lassitude which we call Spring Fever is manifested."

"And the remedy, Doctor," an interested listener asked, "Why my dear sir, the remedy for these starved nerve and blood centers is Phosphated Iron. But there is no reason why we should ever reach this point, if we would, from time to time take that well known remedy, Phosphated Iron, and so maintain the physiological balance, as shown by our color, our sense of well being, push and activity, all of which are necessary to make life worth while."

And the Doctor was right. Special Notice—To insure Doctors and their patients receiving the genuine Phosphated Iron, we have put in capsules only. Do not allow dealers to substitute tablets or pills. Insist on capsules.

he asked Mr. Qua to produce the records. Mr. Qua said he would attempt to prove that Mr. Rourke requested the New England Structural Co. to make the plans for the new high school of steel for the school. The mayor said there was no doubt in his mind but that the question was proper, but Mr. Regan insisted that the records be produced.

Mr. Rourke said the plans and specifications for the new high school had been drawn for some time. Mr. Flynn came in with the records of the municipal council and read that on Dec. 31, 1915, the commissioner of the public buildings department was authorized to extend a certain contract with Mr. Rourke for the construction of the high school. Reading from another record, Mr. Flynn read that on April 25, 1916, the commissioner of public buildings department was authorized to execute a contract with Mr. Rourke for the preparation of specifications and plans and the supervision of the construction of the high school.

When Mr. Rourke was asked what he had done since Dec. 1, 1916, in relation to the new high school he related that two or three different sets of plans had been made. The plans were completed and the details prepared for the contractors' figures. The specifications were prepared for the bids for the steel. Witness said he and people engaged by him made the plans. He also stated he had conversations with contractors from time to time and he said he attended various meetings of the city council and advisory board. Speaking about the contract with the certain Erector & Structural Co. for the steel, witness said that the first installment was to consist of all the columns and it was to be delivered on or before Aug. 15, 1916.

Q—In order to deliver it it was necessary for the company to have plans?

A—Yes, and the drawings had to be ready in 30 days.

Q—Did you make the plans that had to be made for the fabricating of the steel?

A—Part of them and the rest by the J. R. Worcester Co., employed by me.

Q—In making the plans, was it necessary to take in the account of steel?

A—Yes, sir.

Q—When did you first learn of the choice of the heating engineer?

A—May 19, 1916.

Q—Was it necessary to have that engineer and to confer with him in order to prepare the plans?

A—Yes, sir.

Q—When were the plans ready for the fabrication?

A—June 30.

Mr. Rourke stated that it was impossible to get the plans in shape earlier because the heating engineer had not been selected by the city. He said when he found he could not get the plans out in time he notified the city government and had a talk with Commissioner Donnelly in August. Mr. Rourke recommended the holding up of the steel as the city was not ready to receive it and Mr. Donnelly agreed. He informed Mr. Foye of the same thing and Mr. Foye also agreed to hold up the steel. The New England Structural Co. was notified that the city would not be ready to receive the steel and to hold it up. At this point of the testimony it was 6 o'clock and the hearing adjourned until 8 o'clock this morning.

Today's Session

The hearing was resumed at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. Brown moved that Mr. Marden's statement at yesterday afternoon's hearing be spread upon the records of the council. The mayor said that was unfair because Mr. Brown said yesterday that nothing would be spread on the records, and furthermore Mr. Marden's story was unfinished as he did not submit to cross examination. "I am a member of

BOSTON, June 8.—The legal status of the constitutional convention is seriously questioned by Roger Sherman Hoar, member of the special commission appointed by Governor McCall to compile information for the use of the convention.

Wanted No Oath

Mr. Hoar raises the point that in taking the oath to support the constitution of Massachusetts the members of the convention have opened up the way for an attack on the constitutionality of the convention, and that under several important decisions the results may be declared void.

He urged Governor McCall not to ask the members of the convention to take an oath. The governor put it up to the convention and there being no objection he administered the oath taken by all constitutional officers of Massachusetts. Previously the governor had announced to the convention that Attorney General Attwill had stated that it made no difference whether or not the members took the state oath.

In his letter to the governor Mr. Hoar quotes from Jameson, a leading authority on constitutional conventions, who says:

Uniformly Decided in Negative

"It is generally admitted to be proper, if an oath be taken at all, that the members should be sworn honestly and faithfully to perform their duties as members of the convention. A question of more difficulty is, whether the oath should contain a clause to support the constitution of the state. This question has been raised in several conventions and has been uniformly decided in the negative."

Mr. Hoar states in his letter to the governor that the work of the convention may be put in jeopardy through the taking of the state oath, saying:

"Suppose that someone applies to the supreme court for an injunction to prevent the submission of the proposed amendments to the people. Such attempts are not uncommon."

"Counsel for the plaintiff will rely on opinion of Justices, 3 Cush. 573, to the effect that under and pursuant to the right of the people to change their form of government.

"Right here is where the matter of the oath becomes material. Counsel for the plaintiffs will then say: That would all be very well if you were proceeding outside the constitution."

But you have attempted to proceed under the constitution. Your taking of the oath proves that. So you are now estopped to claim any extra-constitutional popular sanction. You have brought yourselves under the constitution your convention is unconstitutional and void."

Evans Takes Opposite View

Professor Lawrence B. Evans, another member of the special commission, takes the opposite view and maintains that the taking of the state oath does not in any way raise the question of the constitutionality of the convention.

The committee on rules held two sessions yesterday. The main feature of their conclusions was that there will be a free use of the method of the committee of the whole for the preliminary discussion of propositions but that this will not operate against the naming of smaller committees to bring in reports of various amendments which are suggested.

ABOUT 50 PER CENT CLAIM EXEMPTION

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Registration returns came in slowly yesterday and last night from Tuesday's great military census, preventing anything approaching a conclusive estimate as to the number of men actually enrolled.

The nature of the few complete returns in, is the high percentage of indicated exemptions, averaging approximately 50 per cent. of the total registration. Officials pointed out, however, that this did not mean actual exemptions, as the indicated figures include all married men and those in executive, judicial and legislative office. Until exemption regulations have been promulgated, it will be impossible to say how many of these will be included in those to be marked off the military rolls.

The one conclusive result of the registration that cannot be altered in the slightest degree by any possible variation from the estimates is that millions of young Americans have put in their names, claiming no exemption, and stating no reason for release from war service.

In regard to the married men, Secretary Baker said yesterday that in all the letters he has received on the subject of exemption not one even suggested that marriage should establish a claim exemption. He added that it was not the purpose of the department to make such a ruling, but that individual cases would be dealt with on their merits, no matter what the reason for exemption might be.

Returns from six states were received up to 11 o'clock, the hour of closing the postal marshal-general's office.

SAYS GERMANS ARE READY TO QUIT

BOSTON, June 8.—The Germans are about ready to quit, according to Corp. K. E. Condon, an Everett boy fighting with the Twenty-fifth Nova Scotia battalion at the front.

Condon, in writing to his brother, Thomas J. Condon of 22 Dartmouth street, Everett, refers to the Germans as "Fritz" and "Heinie."

He writes: "Fritz will not fight at close range. He quits and hollers, 'Mercy, Francis!' two words he has learned to speak in pretty good English."

"But old Heinie has nearly got me several times. I had a narrow escape at Vimy Ridge when we were taking a few German trenches. While I was searching for an entrance in one of the trenches I ran plumb into a big 'Prussian' cunner. He levelled a pistol at me and fired point blank. As he did I lunged forward and ran my bayonet through him. The bullet from his gun struck my right pouch, glanced off and passed through my sleeve. 'Heinie' was a dead one—it was me or him—and I have his revolver for a souvenir."

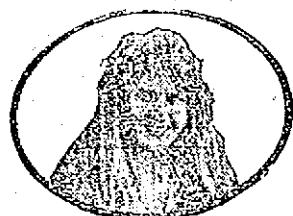

NO PARADE IN LOWELL ON LABOR DAY

The members of the Trades & Labor council met in regular session at 22 Middle street last night and voted that no parade be held by the unions of this city on Labor Day. This action was taken owing to the unsettled state of national affairs. The secretary of the organization was instructed to get into communication with Samuel Conroy, secretary-treasurer of the United Textile Workers of America, will be present. Mrs. Conroy is coming to Lowell to aid in making the final arrangements for the national convention of the U.T.W. to be held in this city in October. The plans will be discussed at the meeting tonight, and for that reason all delegates are asked to be present. A special invitation to attend has been extended to the women of Local 1067, Weavers.

GOING UP!

The master barbers of this city met last night at 23 Middle street and discussed the question of increasing the prices in shops and the matter of the working agreement with the journeymen barbers. The master barbers have agreed to meet the journeymen barbers in session Tuesday night. It is the opinion that as a result of the conference the price of shaves will be increased from 10 to 15 cents.

Gray Hair Restored to its Natural Color

Why not bring back the natural youthful color to those gray and faded hairs that make you look so old? Be young and attractive looking. Have rich, dark, glossy hair without a trace of gray, that everyone admires, that you'll be proud of. You can do it easily—safely—gradually. Do not use dyes or stains—they give the hair an unnatural look. Use HAY'S HAIR HEALTH, its safe, permanent, natural way, ready to use when you buy it, not a dye—used by particular people because its use cannot be detected by others. Why not bring back the natural youthful color to those gray and faded hairs that make you look so old? Be young and attractive looking. Have rich, dark, glossy hair without a trace of gray, that everyone admires, that you'll be proud of. You can do it easily—safely—gradually. Do not use dyes or stains—they give the hair an unnatural look. Use HAY'S HAIR HEALTH, its safe, permanent, natural way, ready to use when you buy it, not a dye—used by particular people because its use cannot be detected by others. Removes dandruff too. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at your druggist's, who will replace it if not satisfactory. Always ask for and get the genuine.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 8.—St. Louis drove Barnes from the box in the third inning, made five runs on two triples, a single, a base on balls and Bailey's error and won yesterday's game from Boston 9 to 4.

Cruise injured his leg rounding second base in the third and had to retire. Beecher, who replaced him, sprained his ankle chasing a ball in the next inning. The score:

Brooklyn 5, Pittsburgh 3
PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 8.—Hans Wagner made his first appearance of the season with Pittsburgh yesterday, playing first base, but poor pitching by Marmox caused the home team to lose, 5 to 3, to Brooklyn. The veteran shortstop in four times up was thrown out three times by the second baseman, but singled the fourth time, driving in a run and was out at second trying to stretch his hit into a double. The league champions hit Marmox hard in the first four innings, after which he was replaced by Grimes who later gave way to Carlson. In only one inning, the eighth, was Pittsburgh able to make his count. The score:

CINCINNATI, June 8.—Regan was ineffective and New York won the third game of the series here yesterday, 10 to 1, piling up 15 hits, most of which came in pinches. Salles, who had been kept in the club by the widely scattered, Catcher McCarty, of the New York club, was seriously injured sliding back into first base in the fourth inning. It is believed he suffered a fracture of the right leg and probably will be out of the game for the remainder of the season. The score: New York... 10 1 0 0 2 2—10 61 Cincinnati... 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—1 104 Salles and McCarty, Kreuger, Rariden, Regan and Wingo.

then presented as the toastmaster of the evening, Rep. Dennis A. Murphy. Needless to say, the "rep" was right in his element as presiding officer, and he conducted the exercises with grace and ability. His opening remarks were very timely and were listened to with marked attention. His introductions of the speakers and singers were graceful and apt.

The first number was a piano solo by Walter Pouliot, following which First Sergt. Talbot and Sergt. Sullivan of the Quincy Machine Gun company, now stationed in Lowell, gave a demonstration of the Lewis machine gun.

The remainder of the program was as follows: Song, James Dowling; chorus, assembly; song, Thomas Delaney; remarks, Thomas Fitzgerald; song, John Stapleton; remarks, James O'Sullivan; song, William J. McGookin; song and chorus, George P. Boland, and, as a grand finale, "The Star Spangled Banner."

The committee in charge of the arrangements comprised George Mullin, William Walsh, Richard O'Brien and Timothy E. O'Sullivan.

During the evening two letters of regret were read from boys on duty with the National Guard. One of these was from George F. Toye of Company G and Alvah Ayer of Company C.

FRANKIE CALLAHAN AND JOHNNY DUNDEE

Boston seems to be the battleground selected by aspirants for lightweight championship honors to go through the process of elimination. Last Tuesday night Willie Jackson destroyed Chick Simler's chances, and next Tuesday night, at the Boston Arena, Frankie Callahan and Johnny Dundee, high in the ranks of lightweights, are to battle. A decisive victory means the elimination of another "hope" for Benny Leonard's title.

Boston fans are perfectly willing that the big arena on St. Botolph street should be the battleground for these lightweights.

Thus far this summer they have been handed the greatest fights in the history of the American A.A. The battle between Dundee and Callahan looks like another whale of a contest. Apparently there is little to choose between them. Dundee and Callahan have fought three rounds, no decision. They will have to fight as they never did before for a decision means a step nearer a match with Benny Leonard.

Dundee has sent it broadway, that his defeat by Willie Jackson was a fluke. He will have a hard job convincing Boston fans, but if he beats Callahan in a decisive manner he will at least have them suspecting that it might be so.

Tony Vatlin and Mickey Brown will supply the thrills in the semi-final which is scheduled to go 10 rounds. Harry Ginsberg of North and and Harry Loring of Malden open the show, while Tommy O'Toole of South Boston and Fred Webb of Weymouth will have another of their gruelling bouts.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Bleachery team will play the Lawrence Mfg. Co. at the Aiken street grounds tomorrow afternoon. The game will start at 3 o'clock.

GARDNER STOPS AHEARN WON IN FIRST ROUND

Jimmy Gardner, the Lowell "come-back," knocked out Young Ahearn, the Brooklyn dancing master, in the first round of a 12-round bout before the members of the Unity Cycle club at Lawrence last night. The man entered the ring and after exchanging blows for two minutes Gardner crashed a right to Ahearn's jaw and the latter went down for the count of nine. He was in no condition to continue, and Referee Phil Powers stopped the bout.

John L. Sullivan, former heavyweight champion, treated the members to a patriotic address, asking them to enlist in the army and buy Liberty bonds.

The other bouts ended as follows: Young Phillips of Lawrence was awarded the decision over Young Weinert of Lawrence; Buddy Dolan of Lawrence lost to Ed Barsell of Quincy in eight rounds; and Kid Thomas, Lawrence fought a draw with Leo Cravay of California after giving away 15 pounds to the latter.

BRONZE BUTTONS FOR GUARDSMEN

BOSTON, June 8.—National guardsmen who did not have to register on June 5, and are not yet in active service, and who have no registration certificate to show that they are not shirkers can be identified by service badges, it was announced at the adjutant-general's office at the state house yesterday.

The problem has arisen on how to avoid confusion if and when the police receive instructions to pick up all young men of draft age, who cannot show the blue registration card. The members of the National Guard in this state did not have to register, and have no papers to let folks know they are enlisted in the service of their state and country. Those not ordered to active duty cannot wear the uniform, and it looked as though they were in for hard sledding.

But the state has distributed to each enlisted guardsman, and is still distributing to each enlisting guardsman, small bronze service buttons. Guardsmen and only guardsmen of Massachusetts may receive these badges. So they are upon the badges, and on them alone, that guardsmen not on active duty may be identified.

New recruits for the navy who are ordered to their homes to await instructions to proceed to training camps have no uniform and are not registered. The identification they possess to show they are already in the service is the written order they are given when sent from the recruiting office.

ONLY 15,000 MEN GO TO NEW CAMPS

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Only about 15,000 men will be trained in the second series of eight officers' training camps to be held from Aug. 27 to Sept. 26, Adjutant-General McCall announced yesterday. Forty thousand entered the first series of camps but the war department has reduced the number for the fall encampments in the hope of obtaining older and more experienced men.

The department yesterday also announced the quota allowed each state in the camps. Application blanks may be obtained after June 15 from commanding generals of the six military departments or from examining officers to be appointed in various states, and applications must be sent to these examining officers before July 15. Applicants are cautioned not to write for blanks before June 15.

Emphasizing the department's wish to obtain men above 31 years of age or men of special ability, General McCall said:

"Since the special object of these camps is to train a body of men fitted to fill the most responsible positions of command in the new armies, every effort will be made to select men of exceptional character and proven ability in their various occupations. While it is desired to give full opportunity for all eligible citizens to apply, no man need make application whose record is not in all respects above reproach and who does not possess the fundamental characteristics necessary to inspire respect and confidence."

Lowell Citizen Gives A Strong Testimonial For The New Stomach Remedy

consist chiefly in furnishing the people of the city with convincing proof that Plant Juice will do all that is claimed for it. That they are doing this, is shown by the numerous testimonials of well known local people who have received benefit from Plant Juice.

One of the latest is that of Mr. A. J. Payette, who resides at No. 46 Fisher street, and is in the employ of one of the largest firms in Lowell. Mr. Payette has hosts of friends and acquaintances, as he has resided in this city for a number of years. He recently stated:

"I have been troubled for a number of years with indigestion, and had heartburn, dizzy spells, headaches, and my stomach was in such a weak condition that I could not digest the lightest kind of food; I was so nervous that I could not sleep at night, was constipated, and had a bad taste in my mouth all of the time. I had read and heard so much about your medicine, Plant Juice, that I decided I would try it. After taking it for several weeks I am glad to say that my appetite is fine, I sleep well, am not constipated and am able to eat anything I want and digest it; the gas has left my system and I never felt better in my life. My wife is taking Plant Juice also with fine results. We are both glad to endorse it."

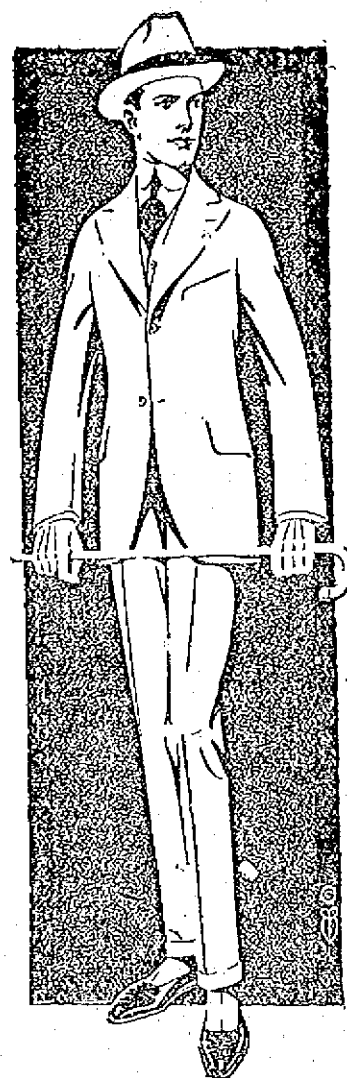

The Plant Juice Man is at Dows, The Druggists, in Merrimack Square, Lowell, where he is daily meeting the local public, and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. On Saturday he will remain at the store until 10 p. m. to meet those who are unable to call during the day.

The speaker of the evening was Dr. Harold B. Plunkett of this city and he spoke on "First Aid." He expounded in detail what should be done pending the arrival of a physician and dwelt particularly on cases which might happen during the time children were at school. Aiding Voice of thanks was accorded the speaker at the close.

Previous to the above meeting a short business session was held by the local association, during which the following delegates were elected to the 12th annual convention of the Massachusetts Public School Janitors' Association at Salem, July 11 and 12: President, Patrick J. During the evening a literary program was carried out and luncheon was served in the dining room of the school.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

The following notices are from the press agents of the theatres mentioned.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Lowell lovers of motion pictures should realize that but two days more will the wonderful picture, "Joan the Woman," be shown at the B. F. Keith theatre. Thousands have already seen this masterpiece of the films, with Geraldine Farrar playing the leading role. Thousands more will wish to see it, and these final opportunities should not be neglected. Appearing in the production are such actors as Wallace Reid, Hobart Bosworth, Raymond Hatton and Theodore Roberts. Performances will begin at 2 and 7.30 p. m., after the box office will open at 1 and 7 p. m.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Today and tomorrow are the remaining days at the Merrimack Square theatre for the presentations of the stellar bill of pictures which was shown yesterday afternoon and evening. Carlisle Blackwell, June Elvidge and Dion Tithener appear in very effective parts in their live act play, "The Crimson Dove," a gripping tale of a woman who tries to live down her past after falling in love with the minister of the man whose death she occasioned. Equally brilliant is the acting of Faye Ward in her great five act motherhood drama, "Unconquered," which is a story of the lengths a mother will go to protect her son from a brutal and selfish father whom she married unfortunately. Also on this program are the Burton Holmes travel pictures depicting a number of interesting scenes a comedy and other plays. A feature which will be shown at this theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next is the big school field day at Spaulding park, which were taken by the management of this theatre.

JEWEL THEATRE

In Universal's new master serial, we see the cunning intrigue of a mysterious clique of criminals, directed in their murderous and inexplicable operations by an unknown almost unseen, genius of evil deeds.—This epic of mystery recounts the daring, ingenuity and scientific mastery of the most unique detective character of modern drama and literature, "John Shriley." The great criminologist, wealthy club man and trained agent, is called upon by the police authorities to solve the uncanny mystery of a series of murders of well-known millionaires. To the surprise of the nation, he takes into his confidence "Polly Marion," a beautiful young actress who has unwittingly been a tool of the conspirators. With this young woman he not only pursues his quarry with every artifice of modern science, but impersonating their intended victims, he gradually draws into the net of justice the various members of the nefarious organization. This in a nutshell is the plot of "The Voice on the Wire" which stars Ben Wilson and Neva Gerber.—The sixth episode is shown at the Jewel theatre today and tomorrow. George Ovey in a brand new comedy, Harry Carey in the great western drama, "Hair Trigger Buck," a multiple reel production of red-blooded adventure and romance, "Mickey's Mockery" with Francielle, Billington and other good attractions will complete a fine end-of-the-week show.

stage favorite, Burr McIntosh never appeared to better advantage than he does as "Joe" in the beautiful heart interest story of "My Partner," which is one of the most popular dramas ever presented upon the American stage.

The picturization of this famous drama is the special attraction secured by Manager Hudson for Friday and Saturday at the Royal theatre. In the story of "My Partner," Joe's friendship for his "pard" Ned, which even stands the supreme sacrifice of saving the woman he loved won away from him by his friend,—his suffering when he discovers his tragic death—his pathetic appeal when he is excused of the crime, which finds expression in the simple, but heart-rending words "He was my pard" and the many soul-stirring incidents

Cocoanut Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

through which this noble character is revealed, stamp the role of "Joe" indelibly in the minds of all who have seen the drama. The picturization is a veritable film classic. On the same program is the second human story from the O. Henry series, offered by the Broadway players,—not much need be said about these films. The first which was shown last Friday and Saturday was an indication of the high standard to expect throughout the entire series. Among the many other good attractions are a "Lonesome Luke" comedy—a new Ham and Bud release with the two funny men at their best and Mollie King in the latest episode released of "The Mystery of the Double Cross."

CROWN THEATRE

In one of the strongest and most sensational photoplays ever screened, Robert Edeson, America's leading dramatic star, will be seen at the Crown theatre on today and tomorrow, in "For a Woman's Fair Name," a new Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature.

The name of Robert Edeson is one which is well known to theatregoers throughout America, and in this new production he is given every opportunity to display his wonderful ability.

This play deals with a woman who is blackmailed by a scheming servant, who continually threatens to disclose to her husband information which would blazon her character. How the husband finally learns this news, how the wife is cleared and how the servant meets the end which he deserves, forms a story which is bound to hold the interest of all from start to finish. Other excellent attractions will also be presented at the Crown today and tomorrow in conjunction with the feature.

OWL THEATRE

In one of the most sensational photoplays ever filmed Theda Bara, the world's greatest portrayal of vampire roles, supported by Lowell's own favorite screen star, Herbert Hayes, will again be seen at the Owl today and tomorrow, in the new Fox feature, "The Tiger Woman." This de luxe production deals with an unsuspicious Russian noblewoman, who by her wonderful beauty and enticing ways creates havoc among the upper strata of Petrograd, and then invading America does the same thing in New York's smart set. How she meets the end which she deserves is vividly depicted in a smashing climax, the like of which has seldom, if ever, been seen on the screen.

Also showing on the same program is the stirring art drama, "The Adventurer," featuring Marion Swank.

Uncle Sam Invites You to Visit His National Parks

The government has done big things this past year in adding to the interest of the National Parks.

Many new trails have been laid out in Glacier so that interesting places heretofore inaccessible, may now be visited. Automobiles are universal now in Yellowstone, taking the place of the uncomfortable and slow-going horse stages, a nodder for rejecting by visitors, and the "Cody Road"—eastern exit from the Yellowstone—has been perfected so that its marvelous scenery can be viewed from comfortable automobiles, over glorious Shoshone Canyon. Don't miss the Cody Road!—Let me tell you a detail of the opportunity to visit Glacier, Yellowstone, Cody Road, Rocky Mountain (Estes) Park, Denver and Colorado Springs (with Pike's Peak and Garden of the Gods near by) all on the lines of a single great railroad system—the Burlington Route—the big, prosperous, well-managed railroad of the west. One ticket over one railroad. A glorious trip!—Alex. Stocks, New England Pass. Agt., C. B. & Q. R. Co., 264 Washington street, Boston.

To "hold back" or "retrench" in the purchase of household needs or comfort-giving articles because of the war would be one of the most unpatriotic acts imaginable.

For now, more than ever, it is to the interests of the whole country and every individual in it, to keep all kinds of business normal.

REV. EDWIN P. HASSETT

REV. WILLIAM E. DRAPEAU

LOWELL MEN ORDAINED
TO PRIESTHOOD

Two Lowell young men, Edwin P. Hassett and William E. Drapeau, were ordained to the priesthood this morning at a solemn high mass celebrated at the Holy Cross cathedral, Boston, at 9 o'clock. The ceremony was attended by several relatives and friends of the young clergymen of this city and was presided over by His Eminence William Cardinal O'Connell.

Rev. Edwin P. Hassett is the son of Mrs. Mary T. Hassett, of 85 Hanks street and a former pupil of the Immaculate Conception parochial school. He also graduated from the Lowell high school and Holy Cross college. He completed his studies at St. John's seminary, Brighton. The young clergyman is a nephew of Rev. David J. Murphy, pastor of St. Andrew's church, North Billerica. He will celebrate his first mass at the Immaculate Conception church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Rev. William E. Drapeau is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Drapeau of 17 Mt. Washington street. He was born in this city July 26, 1893, and received his early education at St. Joseph's college. After leaving the Lowell school he entered St. Charles Borromeo college at Sherbrooke, Que., and completed his studies at St. John's seminary, Brighton.

The young clergyman has five brothers, Arthur, Hervey, Lucien, Raoul and Walter, and three sisters, Blanche, Antoinette and Lillian. He will celebrate his first mass at St. Jean Baptiste church Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock and for the occasion a special musical program has been prepared. In the afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock a reception will be held at the home of the parents, 17 Mt. Washington street.

he was informed of the purchase of 200 tons of New River coal at $10.75, he immediately cancelled the requisition for the coal well coal. He also gave instructions to two employees at the boulevard pumping station to weigh each load delivered by the Horne Coal Co. and also to test a sample from each load to ascertain whether it is New River or not.

Mr. Brown was asked what he intended to do with the New River coal at the Cook wells and he stated he had made up his mind to open the wells sometime this summer. Asked why he had cancelled the requisition for 500 tons, he said the public safety committee will soon have a lot of coal direct from the mines and at the mine prices and he will buy the coal from the committee.

Want More Men
Commissioner Morse wants 50 good men for the street department. The commissioner has a big proposition on hand at present and that is the laying of a sewer in Appleton street. A ledge averaging in depth between 6 and 11 feet has been struck and it was necessary to bring the compressor jack hammer drill on the job. It is expected that work on putting the Cardinal O'Connell parkway in shape will be started sometime next week, for some of the curbing has arrived and it is expected that more will be delivered in the early part of next week.

Park Department Work
If the rowdies who are damaging property on the commons and parks of this city are caught they will be punished to the fullest extent of the law. Last Wednesday the park department completed the repairing of seats on the North common at a cost of about $100 and today it was found that two of the seats had been broken down, and it is believed that an axe or other sharp instrument was used by the culprits.

About 30,000 tulip bulbs have been taken from the parks and commons and stored until fall at which time they will be turned over to the school children for planting. Summer plants of all descriptions are now being replanted on the various parks and commons.

More Registration Cards
During the past two days the military enrollment board of this city has received 63 supplementary registration cards from residents of this city who are employed in other cities, the cards being received by the mayor and city clerk.

Lepine Approves Bills
Maxime Lepine, who was elected to succeed Edward H. Foye as purchasing agent and who later was relieved from his position by the supreme court in its action of reinstating Mr. Foye, called at city hall this morning and approved some of the bills for goods purchased by him.

New Chauffeurs
Forty candidates for a chauffeur's license were examined at city hall this morning by Examiners Howman, Haley, Hubbell and Olson of the state highway commission.

Payrolls
The city payroll for the week amounts to $19,977.74, while the school teachers' payroll for the month of May amounts to $32,389.55.

First and Last
Mayor O'Donnell has been invited to attend the first and last dancing party under the auspices of the members of Battery B, Second Mass. Field artillery, before the battery leaves Lowell, which will be conducted at the state armory on the evening of June 15. The mayor will attend.

Pershing in London
General Pershing and his staff arrived here this morning after an uneventful trip. All the members of his party were in good health and spirits. Their ship was escorted into port by American destroyers.

A hearty welcome was extended the Americans by official representatives of the admiralty, the war office and the municipal authorities. The war office has assigned a brigadier general of the British army as aide to Gen. Pershing. He took up his duties with the commander-in-chief as soon as the latter reached here.

The formal welcome to the Americans at the landing stage here was a stirring scene. A guard of honor composed of Royal Welsh Fusiliers was drawn up at the landing with a regimental band. After Gen. Pershing had been introduced to the military officer in command of the port he inspected the guard of honor, the band meanwhile playing "The Star Spangled Banner."

Gen. Pershing said to The Associated Press:
"The trip has been delightful, particularly the latter stages, when we were escorted through the danger zone by our own destroyers. Speaking for myself and my staff, we are glad to be the standard bearers of America in this great war for civilization. The opportunity of landing at a British port and the welcome we received are very significant and are deeply appreciated. We expect in the course of a very short time to be playing our part on the western front."

Gen. Pershing and his staff proceeded toward London. Before leaving the steamer the general thanked the captain and crew for their courtesies during the voyage.

The British delegation which welcomed the Pershing party on board the deck of the liner consisted of Rear Admiral Stilleman, Lieut. Gen. Sir William Pitt Rivers Campbell and the lord mayor of Liverpool. The ship docked at 9 o'clock.

After the band had played the American national anthem it rendered "God Save the King" all present standing at the salute throughout.

The voyage was a quiet one. The time was devoted by Gen. Pershing and his staff to hard work, with close concentration on the study of French by all the officers. During the trip there was a concert at which General Pershing made an address. There was great enthusiasm on board when three American destroyers came up to act as escorts.

Pershing's Task Described
PARIS, June 8.—Gen. Pershing's task in France was described as a most arduous one by Col. Fabry in an interview with a representative of the Petit Parisien. Col. Fabry said:

"It is not an expeditionary corps that will be sent from the United States, but a veritable army, which will be increasingly swelled by fresh contingents and is destined to occupy an ever-increasing front."

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

It appears that the so-called conservatives will control the constitutional convention. Hon. John L. Bates, who was elected chairman, was the choice of the conservatives, although a considerable number of progressives voted for him.

There was a ripple of excitement in the ballot for chairman and an effort to adopt the secret ballot method was defeated by the liberals as an alleged scheme to favor the interests. Delegate Coakley, of Boston, was heard from with considerable effect, his speech eliciting hisses when he flung out the insinuations in reference to the interests.

The opening speech of Gov. McCall was probably the very best of his career. It was fair, learned, statesmanlike and progressive. In this notable utterance the governor laid down the broad principles upon which the organic law of the state should be based.

His definition of democracy and the explanation of its duties and responsibilities as a governing power were timely and to the point, while his defense of the rights of the minority was also clear and logical. On this point he said:—

"The few who are at the moment stronger have no right to trample upon the many, and on the other hand, the many, who, by the power of numbers, in a democracy, are stronger, have no right to oppress the few. In either case the right rests upon the superior force and if in the scheme of things, right may be based upon power; then we must recognize force and not justice as the final arbiter of the world and there is an end to the moral universe."

"A great nation with its armies may overrun a weak one, but the greater the relative strength of the oppressor, the more heinous is his crime against Heaven; and in the same way in a state, a mass of men may not of right in their organized capacity, do injustice to an individual man."

The governor stated that the constitution about to be revised is the oldest now in force anywhere in the world. That it has lasted so long was due to the fact that it embodied principles rather than statutory provisions and thus the old instrument offers a good suggestion for the construction of a new constitution that will be up-to-date and progressive and yet so confined to fixed principles and policies of government as to serve for many generations without change.

CREED FOR AMERICANS

The Vigilantes, an organization of authors, have announced a prize contest for an American citizen's national creed. The city of Baltimore, the home of Francis Scott Key, has agreed to pay the $1000 prize offered. President Wilson, United States Commissioner of Education P. P. Claxton, and other high officials, have given their approval and the contest is on. It will conclude September 14, 1917, the anniversary of the writing of "The Star Spangled Banner." What is sought is the best summary of our civil beliefs and duties to be adopted for general circulation in convenient form and for use in public and private schools throughout the country. The limit in length is set at 300 words.

Past efforts to secure a national anthem to order have signally failed, but this matter of writing a national creed for a true American, is somewhat different. We have no doubt that a fairly good American creed will be evolved although it may not and in reality cannot be entirely original in thought.

The creed, which it is proposed to secure in this way, is actually needed for the reason that a great many citizens differ widely in their views as to their duties and obligations to the state, something that will be generally accepted as an accurate statement of the principles of freedom which every American holds dear and for which he, if necessary, would sacrifice even life itself.

FORT HILL PARK

Editor Sun.

Dear Sir: I wish to thank you for bringing to the attention of the public the unpardonable condition of Fort Hill park, especially in the evenings. As you have stated there is no police protection whatever. This I believe is a very grave mistake. The people who reside close to the park are annoyed by the disorderly conduct and the indecent language heard there in the evenings. It would seem that a park which is the most beautiful in New England should be made safe at all hours of the day or evening for anybody who wishes to go there for fresh air, for recreation or to enjoy the magnificent view of the city and the surrounding country. I hope the city will see the wisdom of suppressing all disorder on the park so that the public can enjoy it and so that the residents in the vicinity may not be disturbed or shocked by the nightly carousals. I want to say that these have not been nearly so bad since the Sun called attention to them.

Truly yours,

S. P. F.

We are glad to find that an improvement has been noticed in conditions at the park. It is now in the height of its grandeur, but many people are afraid to go there. It should have police protection so that women and children can go to it at any time with absolute safety.

CASE OF BELGIUM

of her people. To talk of such a finale to the war is utterly absurd. Even Germany herself offered to be responsible for any damage done to Belgium. But German promises have already proved quite unreliable and they will probably be so in this case—unless Germany be compelled to make good. But for a country ravaged and pillaged and outraged, for a people enslaved, and barbarously persecuted, what reparation can be made? Not evacuation of territory, not payment in money—nothing that Germany can do would repair the damage, but she should be forced to make reparation so far as that is possible. It is but right that she should pay for her wanton cruelties.

THE LIBERTY BONDS

Some people are holding back on buying a liberty bond in the hope that the government will offer a higher rate of interest. The present bonds are issued on the express condition that they will be exchangeable for other bonds if any are issued later at a higher rate of interest. The present rate is 3½ per cent and the loan may run for thirty years. The bonds can be disposed of at any time, or used as collateral for loans. The people who deposit their money in the postal savings banks can get much higher interest by investing in the Liberty Bonds. It is the duty of every citizen who has the money to help the government in raising the amount desired—two billion or about $20 for every man, woman and child in the country. The bonds are issued in denominations of $5 and $100 and upwards.

FALSE ALARMS OF FIRE

Chief Saunders of the fire department has recently complained of false alarms being rung so as to call out the fire department when there is no fire. It is a very serious matter to ring a false alarm. In the first place the engines are liable to meet with an accident on the way to a fire, or they may run over somebody. But suppose nothing of this kind happens, it costs a considerable amount for fuel to run the engines. Last but not least, while the engines are responding to a false alarm the apparatus may be called to a real fire in another part of their district. Thus, delay is caused that may allow a fire to get headway, and cause the destruction of life or property which would otherwise be prevented. The boy or the man who rings a false alarm should be sentenced to jail.

LORD NORTHCLIFFE'S COMING

Considerable interest centers in the coming to this country of Lord Northcliffe to head the British mission and represent England in dealing with the allied missions. Lord Northcliffe, through his newspapers, has proved himself one of the most influential men in England. He is accounted an able man than Mr. Balfour, although very much younger. His forte lies in deciding and applying policies rather than in diplomatic affairs for which his capacity has probably never been tested.

REGISTRATION

The federal authorities are allowing a few days of grace for those who, through any misconception of the law or any lack of opportunity, failed to register. Such parties will be permitted to register with the proper city or town authorities without further delay. Anybody found willfully evading the law will be severely dealt with. It is desired to make the registration as complete as possible. The census officials may be called upon to scrutinize the list where there is any suspicion of evasion.

CHILDREN DON'T COUNT

Congress would have performed a just and patriotic act if it had allowed a tax exemption in lieu of children. The exemption on incomes is now set at $1000 for single men and $2000 for the married. A married man with five, six or ten children, who is earning $3000 has more right to exemption than the married man earning $2000 but who has no children.

The latest report of the execution by submarines shows a lower record than for the previous week. This steady decline of the submarine toll is encouraging but the fact remains that it is yet far too high. Thus far the remedy for the submarine menace has not been put into operation. The fact that American boats are having some success in fighting them is a source of gratification.

The quietude with which the registration was carried out offers further assurance that the war will bring little disturbance of business conditions. Some people are disposed to be unnecessarily alarmed over what the war may bring. Only the Germans have predicted disaster and already they are celebrated as false prophets.

Almost daily new evidence of German plots and plotters comes to light in this country. It is difficult to see just how Germany can get adequate returns for the money expended in this way. But it is part of her Kultur system.

Seen and Heard

Cheap politicians cost the country a whole lot.

Almost any man will listen to you patiently so long as you continue to pay him compliments.

Even the thus spent stripping the waxed paper off cubes of butter soon isn't absolutely wasted.

The amateur gardener has cause to reckon the people who give advice among the other garden pests.

When a man is spilling for an argument, nothing makes him madder than to have every one agree with him.

The white tulip has been chosen as a badge by the pacifists, who don't seem to mind giving a bad reputation to a flower.

Theodore Roosevelt in a brass band would never be content to play the piccolo. He would want to beat the big bass drum.

If you want to hear a man say: "Darned if I know!" all you have to do is ask him how long he thinks the war will last.

Even if it were true that seeing one's name in print sometimes brings bad luck, the fashionable woman would want to see her name in print.

Hint to the amateur gardener from the man who doesn't like parsnips: In planting parsnips, plant them so deep that they will never come up.

The backyard farmer may have eggplants and oyster plants and pie plants.

They Were Named Already. We have a reluctance to repeat mistakes made by pupils in school, because most readers believe that these "howlers" never really happened, but are made up, remarks the New Bedford Standard. They are in a class with the story you tell about the city clerk of your own town, only to have one of your listeners say: "Oh, yes, I've heard that, only it was about the city clerk in my town." However, here is a howler we can vouch for as having actually happened in a New Bedford school.

The teacher asked a pupil to name three streets in New Bedford. "I can't," was the prompt reply; "they are named already."

Plainly here was a child who did not go to school to waste his time.

From time to time one reads of the sprightliness and activities of some person of advanced years living in Cape Cod towns. Here in Provincetown, the Advocate makes note, we have a business woman whose 50 years of life handicap for but little, if any, according to the testimony of neighbors and customers of many years' standing. This is Mrs. Rebecca Mayo, widow of Richard Mayo.

Unfolding

The wind is in the camphor trees,
And rippling in the bay;
The sun's availing honey bees
And kids are out to play;
And yesterday I saw a snake
Curled in a patch of sand
In the warm sunshine, half awake,
And known spring was at hand.

I knowed spring was at hand, for spring
Brings out the snakes an' bees,
And makes the birds hop up and sing
And build nests in the trees;
And I am like the snakes and birds,
An' like the butterflies;
I think the spring too sweet for words,
An' I love summer skies.

I love when roses start to grow,
An' shoots begin to sprout
An' when the spring winds whisper low
An' call the children out,
An' then you see white clover blooms
A-growin' in the lanes,
And every breeze brings new perfumes
An' kids make clover chains.

About this time of year I yearn,
Wherever I may be,
For horse an' plow, an' seed to turn;
I feel them coaxing me
To come out where the free winds blow
An' new grass starts to sprout,
An' do my part to help things grow,
And call the children out.

And help them find forget-me-knots
A hidin' in the grass,
And little blue crowded spots
A teller tales to pass;

And so all through my life, by Jingo,
I've always sort of striv'
When I've seen the first snake of spring
To let the feller live.

WOULD BAR QUERY ON RELIGION

WASHINGTON, June 8.—When the applications for the second officers reserve training camp are filed by New Englanders at the Boston headquarters beginning June 15, a far different order of procedure in making the selections will be pursued than what obtained a month ago. If Congressman Gallivan of Boston has his way, yesterday the Boston congressman renewed before Secretary Baker of the war department a protest which he filed some time ago against the manner of selection followed for the first camp. He asked the secretary of war to issue orders to the men detailed to the Boston office that no question be raised as to the religious beliefs.

"You have already heard," said Mr. Gallivan, "that there is a widespread belief in Boston that Roman Catholics and Jews were discriminated against in the selections made for the present camp at Plattsburg. I feel quite positive that I can produce the evidence. I do not want to see a repetition of what happened in May, and for that reason I make this appeal to you now."

"I have already made a formal protest to you in behalf of the Boston College Alumni association of my city, and I regret to say that up to date I have received no satisfactory answer. You have an opportunity now to avoid the very bad mistakes made last month, and I urge you to look carefully into my suggestions before you make your assignments of officers for the Boston headquarters."

Continued

The public safety committee, continued the hearing, "and I know what transpired. You have had over two months to look into the coal matter since you were advised by the committee." The motion was passed, the mayor and Mr. Donnelly voting against.

An Antidote For Uric Acid Poison

(By DR. L. C. BARCOCK)

There is a process going on within the body which often poisons us. It is something like the story of the snake being able to kill itself with its own poison. This is the formation of uric acid in excess within the body. It is a waste product which takes place in the liver. This poisonous uric acid is then passed on to the kidneys, which act as a filter to pass off and excrete this poison. If the kidneys are clogged up, inactive, the poison degenerates these organs and causes kidney disease. If it is deposited in the tissues, around the joints of the body, it causes rheumatism or gout.

Consequently we must do everything to throw off this uric acid poison, and simple methods are best. Flush the kidneys by drinking plenty of water between meals; a pint of hot water morning and night is splendid. Take Anuric (double strength) three times a day for a while, and get the kidneys working by flushing out this poison. That painful affliction, known as gout, as well as muscular rheumatism, is caused by the uric acid crystals being deposited in the big toes or tissues. The man who uses his brain, muscles, over-taxing his nervous energy will suffer from "blues," depression, headache, sleeplessness, loss of memory, all due to the poison of uric acid. The man who does physical work, using his muscles, occasionally complains of sluggishness, muscular tired feeling, muscular stiffness or aches, neuralgic twinges—symptoms all due to this uric acid accumulation. In every case I advise hot water, and Anuric taken three times daily—a simple, safe remedy, which is to be had at almost every drug store.

Itching is unnecessary! Resinol stops it quickly

It is a positive fact that the moment Resinol touches any itching skin, the itching usually stops and healing begins. Unless the trouble is due to some serious internal condition, it quickly clears away all trace of eczema, ringworm, pimples, or similar tormenting, unsightly eruptions, leaving the skin clear and healthy. Doctors prescribe Resinol widely, so when you try it, you are using a remedy of proven value. Resinol is sold by all druggists.

Q—Then the plans were not delayed? A—They were. Q—The heating engineers were selected when? A—May 19. Q—Did your appointment of the heating engineers cause a delay of 30 days in the plans? A—Yes, sir. Q—Will you explain why the New England Structural Co. shipped cast iron beams to Lowell after the steel had been held up? A—In August the city was not ready to receive the steel, but cast iron beams were sent. Then steel was sent and I called them up and they informed me it was an error. In reply to a question as to when steel was ready, Mr. Rourke said the first installment in October was 15 tons and at the end of the month there were 391 tons ready. Q—Shipments were to commence Aug. 15? A—Yes, sir, and were advanced a month. Q—Was there any steel ready in September? A—Yes, sir, 56 tons. Q—Did the city ever engage the J. R. Worcester Co. as engineers for this school? A—No, sir. Q—Did the commissioner of public buildings or purchasing agent ever notify you in writing about delaying shipment? A—No, sir, only orally. Q—Don't you as a rule require your clients to do all business in writing? A—Yes, sir. Q—How is it you did not do that with the city? A—At that time I was in the office of the Worcester Co. every day and my orders were transmitted orally. Q—Were the plans accepted by the government? A—Yes, on May 2 and 3, and May 17, they were accepted as drawn. They were not completed on account of money, however, difficulties on the part of the city, and the selection of land. Q—Did you receive a letter from the company to the effect that revisions could not be made unless further expense was involved? A—Yes, sir. Q—Did you notify the company that you contemplated more revisions and asked for an extension of time? A—No, sir, I have no recollection. Q—The delay of the appointment of heating engineers was not responsible for a delay in the plans, was it? A—Yes, sir. At 5:30 the hearing adjourned till 4:45 this afternoon.

AIDS MAKE CHARGES AGAINST GOETHALS

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Differences over the government's wooden ship-building program came to a head last night when F. A. Eustis, assistant general manager of the emergency fleet corporation, and his assistant, F. Huntington Clark, issued statements virtually charging Maj. Gen. George

W. Goethals, general manager of the corporation, with halting building of the vessels by prescribing an impossible form of contract. The statements reveal that the fleet corporation has just received offers from 10 firms to build 436 wooden ships within 12 months or 735 within 18 months. Gen. Goethals has turned the proposals down because the builders wish to construct the ships on a cost plus 10 per cent profit basis instead of contracting for a flat price for the ships. Mr. Eustis and Mr. Clark are the main engineers who originated the wooden ship-building plan adopted by the shipping board and regarded by Gen. Goethals as impracticable. When the board formed the fleet corporation and put Gen. Goethals at its head with full powers to build ships, the two engineers were assigned to the corporation as the general aids. After taking charge of the building program, Gen. Goethals turned to steel construction and limited the wooden program to not more than 250 ships in 18 months.

Say 2000 Ships Could Be Built

Mr. Eustis and Mr. Clark contend the corporation can build 2000 wooden ships within that time without interfering with steel building. Gen. Goethals could not be seen last night for comment on the statements.

Chairman Denman of the shipping board, who has been reported as opposing Gen. Goethals' plans to restrict wooden shipbuilding, said: "None of the members of the shipping board had any knowledge of the statements attributed to the engineers, Mr. Eustis and Mr. Clark, intimating a refusal by Gen. Goethals to build as many wooden ships as he might, nor had they the slightest intimation that they were to be issued. Gen. Goethals, as head of the emergency fleet corporation, in the service of which they have been acting, has entire responsibility for the ship-building program, wood and steel. That power was given him when the board was organized April 15, 1917. "I have previously indicated my opinion as to places where discussions of such a serious character should be initiated. Apparently these gentlemen do not agree with me."

Expect to Lose Places. Mr. Eustis and Mr. Clark are serving the fleet corporation without pay. Both indicated last night they expected their resignations would be asked, but declared they felt it to be their duty to put the situation before the American people and show them that ships can be built to overcome the German submarine campaign. Mr. Clark explained last night the tangle over commitments for wooden ships. When first employed he and Mr. Eustis, he said, directed several shipbuilding companies to go ahead with wooden shipbuilding, leaving the form of contract to be determined on later. The builders, he said, were given to understand they would get at least 10 per cent on their work. Gen. Goethals, he said, on taking charge, stopped all work and the prospective builders had been unable to obtain any satisfaction as to whether they would be given contracts. Mr. Clark's Statement. Mr. Clark's statement said in part: "As far as we can learn, the present program contemplates about 2,000,000 tons of shipping in 18 months. This amount was sunk in the first four months of this year and the shortage is already appalling. The wooden ship program has been out to about one-fifth of its original size—apparently to make room for steel ships. It is possible to build of wood 2,000,000 tons more than are at present contemplated without in the slightest degree interfering with the steel construction. "A crisis in shipping will arise about December 1, and our allies and our success depends on our ability to begin to produce ships by that time. The early ships will be the wooden ships and they may decide the issue. "Even if we build all the wooden

we can only hope for a total of 5,000,000 tons in 18 months. This is not nearly enough. In deliberately neglecting 2,000,000 tons of wooden ships, we are taking terrible chances. The construction of wooden ships has been limited in many ways. The standard design is difficult to build, requires a high percentage of skilled ship carpenters, large timbers and much hand labor. Many of the old Maine builders are willing to build a slightly different ship than the standard design, but will not build the standard as it represents a radical departure from their established practice. "We have another design which could be built much more easily and much more rapidly—which has been accepted by the American bureau of shipping. It is a design of a ship, the board's consulting architect, and which many builders much prefer. The original form of contract called for payment on the basis of cost plus a flat fee. This is the form used by the Canadian government and by our own navy."

JACK HEALEY'S EXCURSION. Jack Healey, manager of the local Mitchell tailoring establishment, and several of his friends had a discussion over the number of men that would register for the draft on June 5 and, while Jack is a great estimator, especially where clothing is concerned, his hope on the local total showed that as for payment on the basis of cost plus a flat fee, he is a very good tailor. In other words, Jack lost and, good sport that he is, he took his friends on a 225-mile trip, that proved one of the most successful of the season. To those who have enjoyed Jack's hospitality the report of the time sounds natural, but to those not so fortunate it may sound like a fairy tale, but the writer will vouch for its authenticity. Healey, wearing, bright, and early the "bunch" met at the store of Mitchell the Tailor, where Mr. Healey's big National touring car was awaiting them. All hopped in and Jack took the wheel. The party first went to Boston, and then turned off toward Fall River. Tiverton, R. I., was the next stopping place. Then Newport, R. I., was visited. Here the party stopped at the Perry house, where dinner was enjoyed. The docks were inspected, and all gave the big ships their double o. A ride up the drive proved very enjoyable. The party then went across to Jamestown Island by ferry. While on board, a large airplane from the training camp passed over the ferry, and the Lowell men were given an excellent view of the craft. The aviator was indulging in target practice, shooting at various objects, and he proved a great shot. Other points of interest were visited, and the party returned early yesterday morning, all pronouncing it a great success, and expressing their gratitude to "Mitch" for the excellent time provided.

with one of its greatest military and naval spectacles, it appeals made yesterday to the United States authorities by Mayor Curley are of avail. It is the mayor's plan to have an outpouring of naval officers and men from ships in nearby waters, including the boys of the Naval Reserve corps, and a big showing of regulars and National Guardsmen, for the parade on Monday. The school committee has been requested to have all the high school cadets in line. Letters outlining the plan for this patriotic demonstration were sent yesterday to Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy; Brig. Gen. Clarence H. Edwards, commanding division of the north; Gov. McCall and the Boston school committee.

The letter to Secretary Daniels, which follows, is typical of the others which have been an annual custom in Massachusetts, wrote the mayor, "even prior to the dedicatory address by Webster, to observe appropriately the anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill, upon each recurring June 17. "The greatest of American patriots have been the guests of the city of Boston in years gone by, and this holiday, as you can readily appreciate, is especially dear to the hearts of our people. "I sincerely trust that by reason of the war with Germany the ceremonies this year may be made notable by a great patriotic demonstration, and to this end sincerely trust the city of Boston may have the active co-operation of the navy department in a great outpouring of naval officers, seamen and marines. "I am also especially desirous of securing the members of the Naval Reserve, encamped at Marblehead, Commonwealth pier, South Boston, and other places, for the great parade which starts June 18, at 2.30 p. m. in Charlestown, the holiday this year falling upon Sunday, and being observed upon the succeeding day. "I will not issue the necessary executive order that will include a great naval demonstration for Boston and Massachusetts, by allowing the appearance of every available man of the active service, reserve and marine corps, to make this the banner day of the year in New England."
